The Moon as Lineage Represents:

- Past Lives, Cellular Memory, Genetic Heritage
- OR Who we used to be
- The skillset we bring into this life
- Where we may have expectations about how life “should be”
- Where we may have unconscious, no longer useful ways of operating
- What habits, addictions, blocks, and challenges we may have in getting to new territory
- When Healthy (used only 1/3 of the time) the Moon is our foundation, supporting us in discovering and living our Current Life’s Intent and Purpose

*Letting go isn't easy,
but it's necessary*

Venus for Women and Men

- Venus on a Woman's Chart represents the Archetype of the Goddess she is here to Embody in this Lifetime
- This is what she is learning about. She is not necessarily an expert at this yet but it is her soul's intent to explore this Feminine Expression
- Venus on a Man's Chart represents his Inner Beloved, often the Idealized Goddess archetype he projects on his partners, but what he ultimately must integrate within himself

The Moon represents the Old Goddess Venus Represents the New Goddess

In Patriarchy the Giver or Relational archetypes, Cancer, Capricorn, Pisces and Libra have been the accepted archetypes of the feminine at high cost to their original essence.

Women with these Moon signs often over give to exhaustion, or succumb to the giving to get addiction (or other forms of addiction) feeling undervalued, underappreciated and unfulfilled.

Women with these Moon Signs are here to let go of their addiction to over-giving or giving up who they are to be in relationship at the expense of their true selves.

Women with these Venus Signs are here to find new, healthier ways to be a Giver.

Addictive Giving to Get
Love, Validation,
Approval, etc.
is Rooted in Instinct.

Awareness and Willingness to Put Yourself First OR Give What you Usually
Give to others
to Yourself First is the best Cure.

The Moon represents the Old Goddess

Venus Represents the New Goddess

In Patriarchy the Independent expressions of the feminine that derive their value from their own accomplishments and achievements such as Aries, Leo, Sagittarius, Aquarius, Gemini, Capricorn, Scorpio and Virgo have been heavily repressed, suppressed, punished and outright denied as valid feminine archetypes.

Women with these Moon Signs are here to reclaim the healthy expressions of these feminine archetypes

Women with these Venus Signs are here to discover, reclaim and energize healthy expressions of these Feminine Archetypes

Moon and Venus for Men

- The Moon on a Man's Chart reveals where his expectations for his partner may be, based on expectations from the past
- He may carry programming from the "Old Goddess" around how the feminine and most especially his partner "should" show up
- A man with a healthy relationship to his Moon can draw on his connection to his "Old" Goddess (Moon) to help him engage his new (Venus) Goddess

The Patriarchy has been as damaging to men as it has been for women

- A man may experience the deep wounding of the Goddess connected to his Moon and Venus
- He may acutely feel and grieve the absence of his Moon Goddess, especially if she is one of the Goddesses who has been violated, invalidated and/or forgotten
- He may also identify deeply with, and act as an ally and advocate for the Goddess of his Venus Sign

Venus And the Moon Questions for Men

- What expectations do I hold for a potential partner that are connected to my Moon Sign?
- What shadow Feminine is associated with my Old Goddess (Moon)? How can I heal my relationship with this aspect of the feminine?
- How can the Goddess of my Moon help me to integrate my Venus archetype?

Invocation to the Many Expressions of the Goddess

We invite the Circle of Grandmothers and the Goddess Sekhmet, who restores the cosmic balance, to support and guide us in healing and transforming within each of us - all the ways the Goddess has been wounded, suppressed, repressed and denied over the past 5000 years of Patriarchy. We ask for your wise assistance in discovering, embodying and living the evolving expressions of the Goddess in both men and women.

We acknowledge the fierce, protective Aries Goddess, who has for far too long been shackled and diminished. We invite you, oh Warrior Goddess to rise up into your full expression, to claim your bold mission and purpose as a protector of the Cosmic Order with fierce love and committed dedication, to express your full personal power and vitality, welcomed and adored in all your feminine strength.

We acknowledge the Lovely and Earthy Taurus Goddess, whose beauty and sensual nature, has been violated and desecrated. We honor and celebrate your gifts to again bring forth the arts of intimacy and receivership, inspiring us to learn from you how to restore the Garden of Earthly Delight bringing Heaven to Earth as a manifest reality.

We acknowledge the Playful Gemini Goddess, you whose youthful spirit and coyote wisdom has been severely judged and misunderstood. We honor you, knowing your trickster nature and playful irreverence will help bring the world into balance again. We invite you to bring your magic back into our world.

Invocation to the Many Expressions of the Goddess

We acknowledge the Loving Mother Cancer Goddess, you whose nurturing and caring acts of endless service have been taken for granted, leaving you empty, exhausted and embittered. We are grateful for you, and welcome the healing of your heart as you remember self nurturing must occur before nurturing the world. We remember a time where the Mother Goddess was revered, honored and valued as the Source of All Life.

We acknowledge the Generous and Loving Queen Leo Goddess, you whose Bright and Radiant Feminine Power and Light has been hidden and denied. We behold you as you stand in your Luminous Sacred Fire of Radiant Self-Love, Self-Respect, and Self-Confidence as the Inspiring and Charismatic Goddess that you are. We invite you to Co-Create with us a New World, a New Way of Being, where the Goddess is revered and the masculine is healed.

We acknowledge the Dedicated High Priestess Virgo Goddess, you whose devotion to your Sacred Work restores the balance between humanity and Gaia. Your Sacred Function has gone far too long unseen, unrecognized, forgotten and unappreciated. With your wise guidance we are honored to restore your temples, to gather the priestesses together in sacred ceremony, to restore a culture of reverence for the Earth, and each other, once again.

Invocation to the Many Expressions of the Goddess

We acknowledge the Loving and Supportive Libra Goddess, you whose yearning for union through equal partnership has long been denied and distorted into hierarchal, power-over relationships or unhealthy expressions of codependency. We declare your time has come, that our human hearts are blossoming and remembering our true nature is to be revealed through healthy and lasting bonds of love through mutual empowerment and support. We joyfully co-create with you a new culture that includes harmonious relationships, knowing everyone in our life is a mirror for our own growth!

We acknowledge the Transformational Dark Goddess Scorpio, you whose understanding of the Death and Rebirth mysteries have caused you to be feared, maligned and unjustly punished for far too long. We graciously welcome your extreme passion, your intense aliveness, your magical command of life force energy, back into our world - to help us feel deeply, die to our old selves, and be born anew.

We acknowledge the Enlightened Questing Sagittarius Goddess, you whose Feminine Spiritual Insight has been pushed aside in favor of patriarchal religion and dogma. We call on your wisdom, guidance, and dedication to the spiritual quest to help us elevate our consciousness to a wider and higher perception of Spiritual Truth - that honors all dharmic paths, fully supporting their intended divine unfolding for the benefit of us all.

Invocation to the Many Expressions of the Goddess

We acknowledge the Wise Matriarchal Capricorn Goddess, you whose knowledge, discernment and wisdom is sourced from the Circle of Grandmothers. We know your wise counsel for the Earth and Future Generations has been ignored at great cost to all life. We invite your deep wisdom to guide all Councils of Human Leadership, to take your place and be heard, so that our human community might thrive in balance with Mother Earth.

We acknowledge the Brilliant , Innovative and Cosmic Aquarius Goddess, you whose vision of an egalitarian culture that includes freedom and spiritual awakening for All Beings has seemed impossible in the Patriarchal era. We tell you now, we are ready to awaken! We embrace the accelerated evolution available to us now, so our vibrations are lifted into alignment with our true divine nature as Light workers transforming our world.

We acknowledge the Compassionate and Loving Pisces Goddess, you whose sacred healing rites have been forgotten. We call on you now to heal our addictions by helping us remember the doors and pathways into transcendent union with the Divine, experiencing ecstatic states of bliss and remembering our true nature as Love and Connection, as Divine Union with All that IS.

Elements of Moon and Venus

Knowing the elements helps with navigation from the Moon to Venus either as the New Feminine Identity (women) or the new relationship to the Inner Goddess (men).

Moon in the Same Element as Venus

For Example: Sagittarius Moon to Aries Venus are both fire signs so they share qualities of Dynamic Movement, Transformation, Alchemy, Enthusiasm, and Taking Fast Action, etc...

When Moon and Venus are in the same element the integration challenge comes from the different modalities, i.e. Sagittarius is In Service to Spirit and Aries is Householder (see slides on Modalities)

Elements of Moon and Venus

Shifting from Water to Earth or Earth to Water

Earth is about the Physical Realm and Water is about the Feeling Realm. Earth is slow to change, Water takes on whatever shape is around it.

Earth tends to be practical and Water tends to be compassionate. Earth might feel frustrated when feelings interfere with practical decisions. Water might feel frustrated when practicality lacks compassion.

Shifting from Air to Fire or Fire to Air

Both are in constant movement, constant change. Air operates from the mental realm or logic and reason. Fire operates from the intuitive realm or knowing that goes beyond logic and reason.

Both like spontaneity but arrive there from different places. Air enjoys the mental process and Fire enjoys the intuitive process and these can be at odds when Air wants to know why and Fire doesn't.

Elements of Moon and Venus

Shifting from Earth to Air and Air to Earth

Earth and Air might express as a Tornado. Earth might hide from Air in a Cave. Air might be suffocated by Earth because Earth is slow to change, and Air is constantly changing.

Earth is patient and willing to wait for the right time to take action or make changes. Air is impatient, quick to take action, quick to make changes.

Shifting from Air to Water or Water to Air

Air and Water might express as a hurricane. Both are changeable but Air does it through mental processing and Water does it through feelings.

Air can be detached, Water is deeply feeling. Moving from Air to Water from a more detached witness place, to deeply feeling and sensitive can feel overwhelming. Moving from sensitivity to learning how to step back and detach to gain the bigger picture perspective is also not easy.

Elements of Moon and Venus

Shifting from Earth to Fire and Fire to Earth

Fire needs the fuel Earth provides and Earth needs the Energy Fire provides. Fire is quick to take action. Earth takes time needed to carefully consider taking action.

Earth can put out Fire and Fire can scorch Earth.

Fire to Water or Water to Fire

From Fire to Water represents the journey from the Intuitive Realm to the Feeling Realm. Fire is not familiar with the Feeling Realm and can feel overwhelmed by feelings. Water is sensitive and that can cloud Intuitive Knowing.

Water can put out Fire, Fire turns water into steam.

Sign Modalities

House Holder/Culture Bearer

a.k.a Cardinal Signs

This energy defines a Direction and Gets Things Started, initiating a New Season as in Equinox or Solstice. Originates Movement and Action toward an Intended Expertise in the area of Relationships, Family, Community or Protecting Family, Community, Society or the Earth etc..

Self-Interest/Self-Exploration

a.k.a Fixed Signs

The middle of the season when the energy is stable and directed toward Self-Discovery through Focused, Determined, Persistent, Single Minded Pursuit to deepen Self-Knowing . It also includes Strongly Directed Personal Will with Intent to align with Divine Will

In Service to Spirit

a.k.a Mutable Signs

This energy is adaptable as it is the sign just before a Solstice or Equinox seasonal shift. In Service to Spirit Signs are here to Serve the Evolution of Consciousness or what is beyond the Physical and yet it includes All of Life with very little focus on the personal self.

Modalities of Moon and Venus

Familiarity with the modalities also helps to get a sense of the journey for navigating from the Moon to the Venus either as the New Feminine Identity (women) or the new relationship to the Inner Goddess (men).

The Moon and Venus in the Same Modality does not require additional synthesis, except for the interaction between the elements.

The Moon and Venus in Different Modalities requires an understanding of the Modalities to understand the potential challenges someone may encounter.

Community
Family
Couples
Noble Causes

Modalities of Moon and Venus

Shifting from Householder to Self-Interest

requires the development of a self since the Householder is usually identified with their role as Warrior Protector, Community Leader (Community Builder), Parent (Nurturer), or Relationship Expert.

Shifting from Self-Interest to Householder

Requires a new focus that includes the needs of others either from a Community, Family, Relationship, Or Worthwhile and Important Mission Point of View.

Modalities of Moon and Venus

Shifting from In Service-to-Spirit to Self-Interest

Requires the development of a Self since those in Service to Spirit are focused on how to help and heal, do a sacred work, be a messenger, or their spiritual quest for truth and meaning.

Shifting from Self-Interest to In Service-to-Spirit

Requires a new focus that is beyond the self, whether that is Helping and Healing, having a Sacred Work, Being a Divine Messenger or questing for the Truth.

Modalities of Moon and Venus

Shifting from In-Service-to-Spirit to Householder

Requires the development of a Self and learning how to Navigate the Middle World. This is unfamiliar territory since those In Service to Spirit are focused on how to help and heal, do a sacred work, be a messenger, or pursuing their spiritual quest for truth and meaning.

Shifting from Householder to In-Service-to-Spirit

Requires a new focus of following the Guidance of Spirit (something beyond the self that is caring for others in a practical Middle World Way). This is when the Householder is figuring out how to Help and Heal others, Be a Divine Messenger, create a Sacred Work that may not include family, relationships or community, or how to have the questing for the Truth and Meaning be on the leading edge of what you do.
