Defining the Overtone

The word Overtone is defined as a musical tone that is a part of the harmonic series above a fundamental note and may be heard with the fundamental note.

It is also a subtle or subsidiary quality, implication, or connotation.

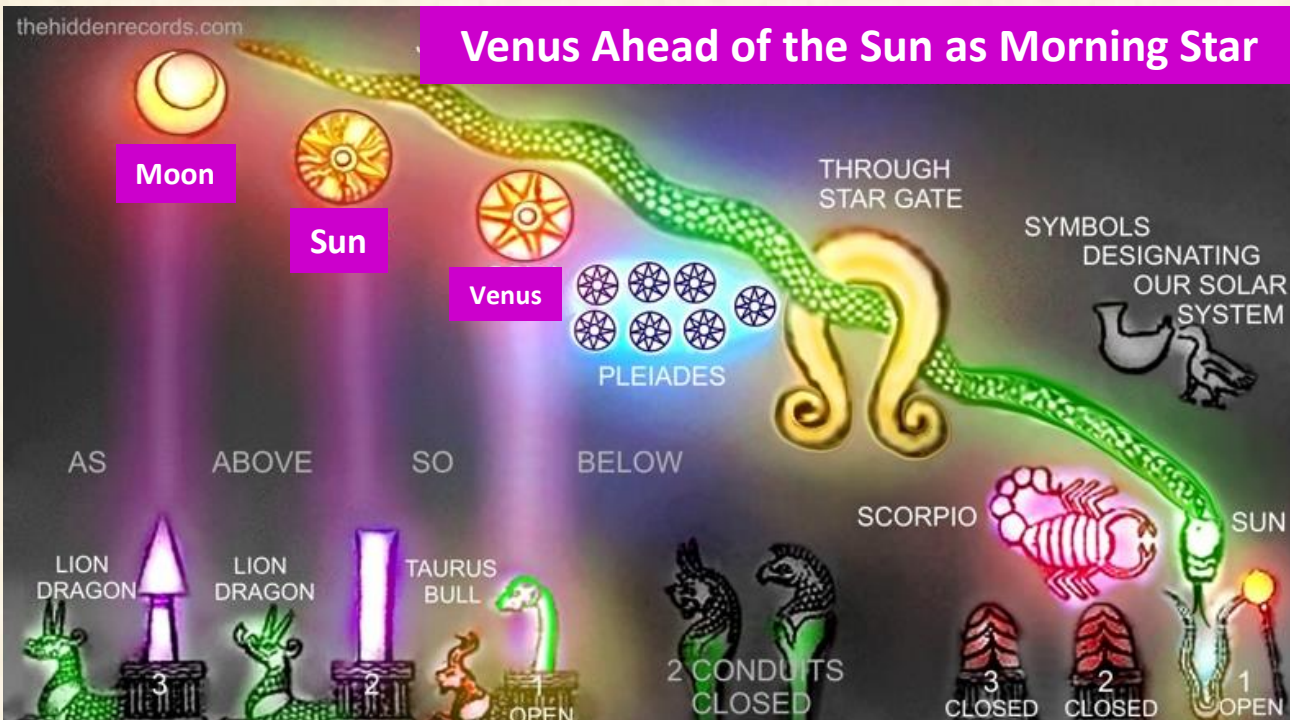

This is an illustration of an Old Babylonian Boundary Stone (kept in the British Museum) showing the Discs of the Moon, Sun, and Venus. It is also showing the constellation of the Scorpion and the Pleiades.

The kudurrus, are ancient Mesopotamian boundary stones used to demarcate the boundaries of land grants, inscribed with gods and kings, along with cuneiform that outlines legal rights, tax obligations, and magical curses for anyone who tries to move the stone illegally.

This is another interpretation

Contribution in the World

The energy of our Overtone is larger than life, and is why we refer to Her as the Meta-Goddess.

She is Transpersonal rather than personal. She
Bridges the divide between our personal journey
The bigger story of which we are a part.

Our contribution in the world is to be of service to our Venus Overtone Meta Goddess.

For people born into the Cancer, Virgo, Aquarius or Scorpio Overtones it is as if you have fully integrated the teachings of the Meta-Goddess of the Venus Overtone Active at your birth, and are currently in training with the Meta-Goddess of your New Overtone.

Through our research we have seen that life themes, particularly those at play during Venus Returns, shift with the Overtone.

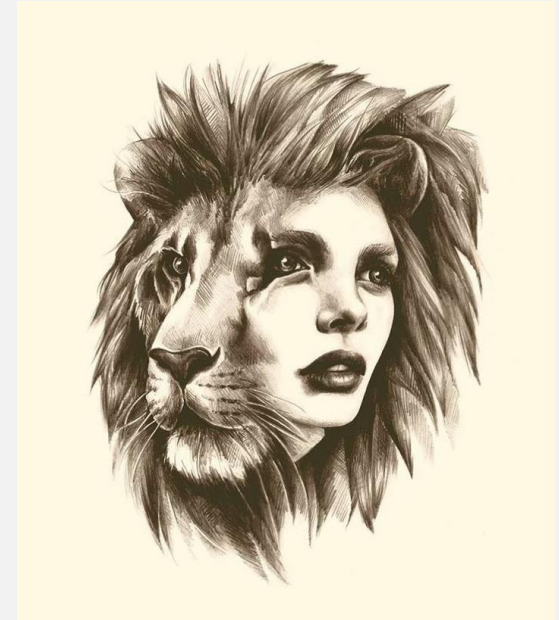

Changing Overtones or Meta Goddess since 1948

Cancer/Gemini Overtone

(Changed in 1975)

Having integrated the qualities of emotional care and nurturing the intent now is to channel the Gemini qualities of playfulness and inspired communication into your work to restore a culture where it is safe to be vulnerable, and to be in contact with the inner child.

Virgo/Leo Overtone

(Changed in 1975)

Previous priorities and life view have been deeply informed by your love of the Earth and attunement to the Divine Feminine. Your intent now is to act as an inspirational leader restoring Earth Reverence and a Culture Aligned with the Sacred Feminine.

Aquarius/Capricorn

(Changed in 1974)

Having mastered the expanded consciousness of the Female Avatar, your intent now is to bring your evolved awareness into the “village” building a new culture aligned with the needs of the Earth and Future Generations.

The Venus Overtone (Meta Goddess) is the LENS (Or Flavor) that the archetype of natal Venus works through.

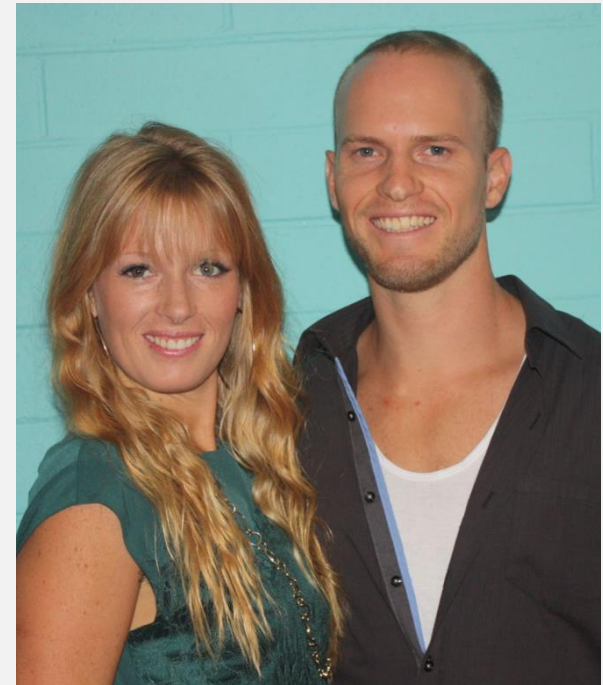

Example: Cayelin has Evening Star Venus in Aries with Scorpio Overtone preferring to be hidden or not as visible working behind the scenes, while relentlessly pursuing her passion of furthering Shamanic Astrology.

Cayelin's Twins Ian and Jenna (age 31) have Evening Star Venus in Aries with a Leo Overtone.

Both have different ways of being in the spotlight.

Ian is a performer at Theme Parks around the world.
He writes songs and performs as a musician.

Jenna competes in athletic events (including an Iron Man in November 2015) and has created a huge community that really loves her.
She is extremely charismatic, entertaining and fun.
She also shines her light as a bartender and is well loved by her customers.

Capricorn Overtone

Capricorn Meta Goddess

Cultural Creatrix

This Meta-Goddess Guides Us to:

- Encounter and Heal the Wounding of Ancestral Culture
- Engage the Reality that We Do Enough & We Are Enough
- Cultivate Healthy Boundaries to Stand Strong and Centered
- Build a Culture in Harmony with Earth and Next Generations
- Claim Your Path as a Way-Shower and Wisdom Keeper in Your Community

Capricorn traditionally held the distortions, the ancestral Wound of the culture. At the Turning of the Ages Capricorn's contribution is to perceive and encounter the Wound and compost it into the Fresh Soil of Restored Culture. We are guided by the Circle of the Grandmothers, whose wisdom resides in our DNA and provides access to past and future realities.

When our Overtone is Capricorn, we are learning to honor the material dimension of life by managing our time, money, and physical space wisely. As we master 3-D reality we are empowered as trustworthy leaders and guides in our communities, taking joyful responsibility for co-creating the New Earth Community.

Venus Overtone Capricorn Meta Goddess Invocation

Reveal to Us the Path Forward to an Age of Restoration, Wellbeing, and Plenty for the Earth and Our Human Family. Heal Us of Wounds that Keep Us Small and Bound by the Past.

Show Us How to Mend the Fabric of the World Beginning with Ourselves. Remind Us Of Our True Human Nature to Act as Stewards of our Earth and Co-Creators of Our Collective Human Destiny, Interwoven with the Destiny of Gaia, Our Mother.

Venus Overtone

Leo Meta Goddess

The Divine Sovereign Queen

This Meta-Goddess Guides Us to:

- Show Up and Freely Shine Our Love Light In the World
- Know that Shining is Natural and Easy when we remember we are the Divine Light
- Become aware of where we are in judgment of our self or others
- Transform any and all thoughts, feelings, and experiences that do NOT support the full-on experience of Radical Radiant Self-Love, Self-Confidence, Self-Acceptance, Self-Approval, and Self-Respect

From the Leo archetypal perspective shining the light of the divine self is not about being in service to others as the primary motivation for living from self-love and personal sovereignty. Rather it shows up as the result of how light shines wherever it is.

The light of the Sun doesn't shine on just a few. It shines on everyone. When our personal light is shining it is also shining on everyone and when this vibrant, healthy, radiant love light shines freely it uplifts everyone around us.

Libra Meta Goddess

The Divine Consort

This Meta-Goddess Guides Us to:

- Understand the Importance of Healthy Relationship where everyone is equally valued for the unique contribution they bring to the relational experience
- Understand healthy relationships begin with recognizing no one is more or less important than anyone else
- Know this includes the value of Cooperation and Collaboration as the basis of the relationship experience
- Knowing Ourselves Through What Others Reflect to US
- Be a skillful Diplomat and Peacemaker, that Promotes Harmony, Balance and Personal Connection

The Libra Meta Goddess has been out of favor for the last few thousand years and as a result most relationships have been primarily based in hierarchy, or one person being more important and dominant in the relationship than the other or others. This has resulted in relationship dysfunction that does not serve a healthy relational experience. As this Meta Goddess returns it is time to once again experience the gifts of equal and collaborative partnerships, recognizing that we all thrive when we foster cooperation rather than competition.

Venus Overtone Libra Meta Goddess Invocation

Oh Radiant and Shining One,

The Scorpio Meta Goddess has not only been out of favor for a long time, she has been greatly feared and repressed as well. It has only been in recent years that it has been safe to again explore her mysteries without fear of being tortured and burned at the stake.

When her passion is ignited she relentlessly pursues it finding she feels more and more alive, more and more excited and turned on. Through passion, intensity, and relentlessly pursuing her desires the powerful magic of alive life force energy returns to US.

The Venus Return Cycle

We experience a personal Venus Return Cycle every 8 years. It occurs when Venus begins a new cycle in the same sign as our personal Venus Overtone.

The Venus Return Cycle is a Descent and Renewal Process, our own Personal Inanna Initiation.

The Intent of the 19-month Venus Return Cycle is to activate a deeper and fuller expression of our personal Goddess Archetype.

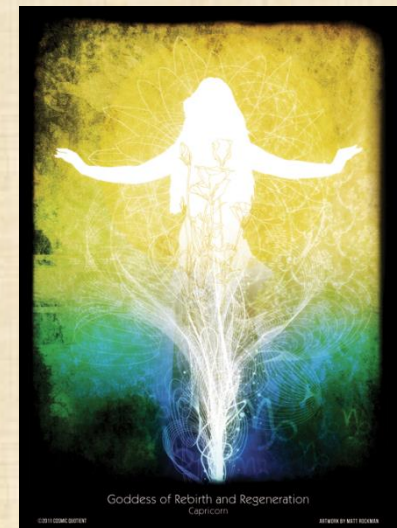

Venus Return Research & Insights

In 2013 Tami surveyed 25 individuals who explored events/experiences from their Venus Returns.

Observations from Daniel and Cayelin, Tami's research, and Venus Alchemy class participant insights reveal:

- Pivotal Life Events Occur During Return
- Themes include: marriage, divorce, affairs, childbirth, miscarriage, abortion, illness and death of loved ones among others
- Power loss at beginning of cycle, empowerment near end of cycle common
- Women often encounter violation and oppression mirroring larger wounding of feminine
- Overtone and Venus Sign themes show up
- As we progress with age through Venus Returns often less intensity, greater empowerment
- Approaching Return as Ceremony Helps!!

Tami's Venus Life Review

Venus in Sagittarius, Gemini Overtone, Morning Star 3rd Chakra

Age 8 Fall From Grace: 2nd Grade Teacher disliked me and singled me out. Previous to that I loved all my teachers and was loved by them.

Age 16 Choosing to be Bad: I saw my older sister, the black sheep, assaulted by my father and later hit by my brother. I felt I had to choose sides, I'd been the "good girl" before this, I chose my sister and rebelled with her.

Age 24 Letting go of Love to Follow My Path: I graduate with my Bachelors in Wildlife Biology. My first true love and I break up after I choose to follow my own path to take a job as a Park Ranger in Idaho instead of moving back to Missouri.

Age 32 Letting go of Toxic Relationship: Graduated with Masters in Environmental Writing from University of Montana, fell in love with man going through separation. I lost sense of myself in addictive relationship, end of cycle broke it off and decided to focus on my career rather than move to Whitefish Montana to be with him.

Venus Return Narratives

Tami's Age 40 Venus Return

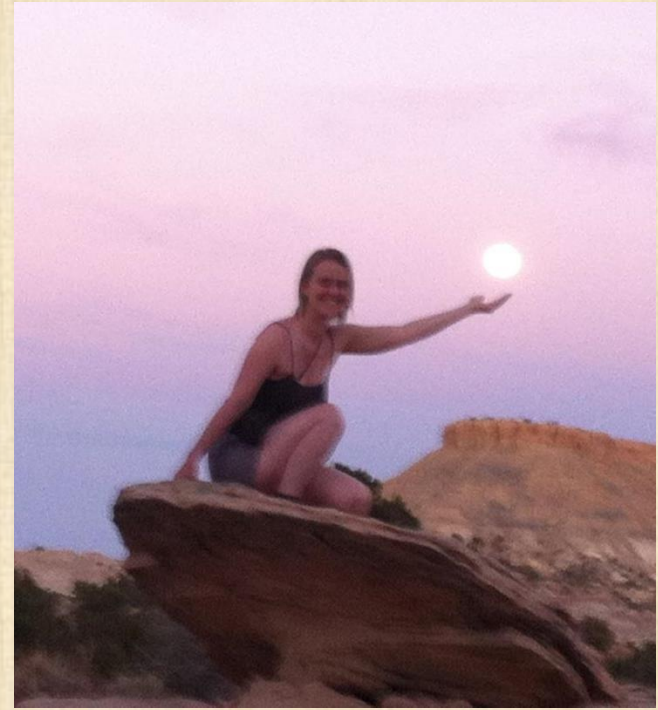

Morning Star Solar Plexus Initiation

My Overtone is Gemini, and my last Venus Return occurred in 2012/2013. During this period my father was dying of cancer—he died 2 days after my 40th birthday.

Prior to his death during each visit home to see my very religious parents, I felt I was passing through a gate where I chose to release attachment to personal identity, being seen or understood; so I could be fully present for my parents' journey.

Support from the Gemini Meta Goddess

After my Dad's death and just prior to the Underworld period, I took my first Robert Moss intensive in Hawaii. My Gemini Meta-Goddess, "She Who Opens the Ways" led me there where I found my tribe of Active Dreamers, and recovered my Magical Child.

I also got my power back when I was gifted with this Dream Mantra, which has remained with me ever since:

I Will No Longer
Dismember Myself to Fit Into Ordinary Reality

Cayelin's Brief Venus Life Review

Venus in Aries, Scorpio Overtone, Evening Star 5th Chakra

Age 8 Abusive Grade School teacher. Afraid to speak in class for fear of being punished or shamed. My parents thought I talked too much and sometimes taped my shut.

Age 16 Excessively shy and afraid to speak up. Parents marriage begins to break apart, I get blamed by my father.

Age 24 A co-worker yells at me (big projection) in front of other co-workers at a temporary job ending in a week. I don't defend myself. I just quietly gather my things and when I get home, I call and quit.

Age 32 My first husband is having an affair and lying about it. I keep catching him in his lies and finally get my voice to demand specific changes. When they don't happen I file for divorce though the divorce is not final until age 33. However, I didn't fight for an equal share of our assets. BIG mistake.

Age 40 Began the Priestess Process forces me to speak in front of others. Lots of Practice.

Age 48 Did my first Radio Shows and Television Interview for Shamanic Astrology. Second husband requires an intervention. I shared with Priestess sisters (using my voice) what was going on and they helped me figure out how. Really scary but empowering in the end. Second divorce follows two years later.

Age 56 In the Best Marriage ever with excellent communication, and getting better all the time. More Radio Shows, Tele-Summits, and Interviews. Created my first YouTube videos with some having over 20,000 views. More teaching opportunities, both live and online. Tracked my Venus Cycle ceremonially and shared the process that helped lead me to creating Venus Alchemy with Tami.

Age 48 Venus Return

56th Birthday, 7th Venus Return in 2012
Almost every Picture Taken that day had orbs.
So magical and affirming!

Cayelin's Venus Life Review

Summary

The primary theme for me has been about gaining Greater awareness and courage to claim and use my voice in more empowered and authentic way since my age 40 Venus Return when I chose to embrace my Venus Signature.

My first Venus Returns were far more traumatic and challenging as I felt very disempowered and afraid to speak, for fear of the repercussions.

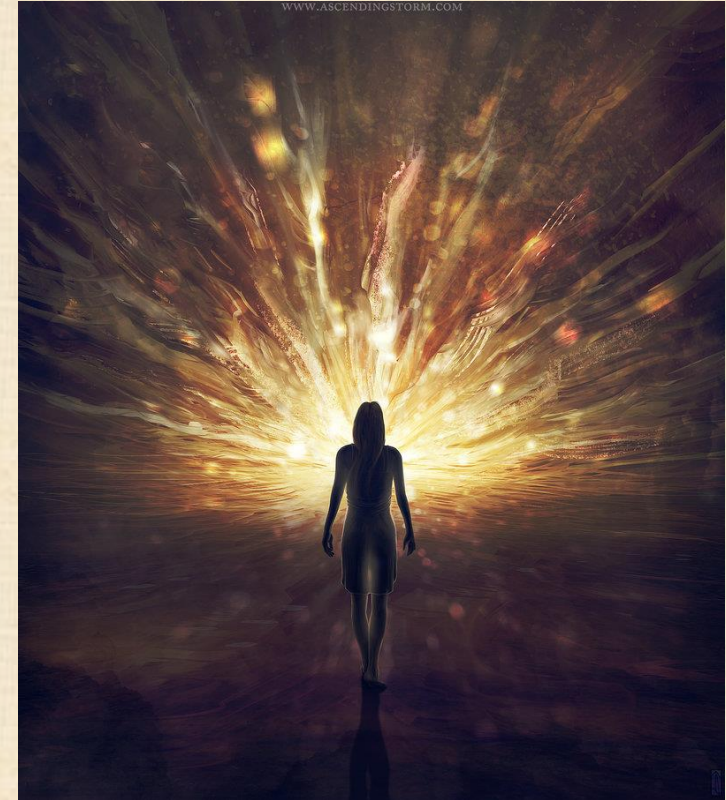

Finding my voice to speak what is transformative, kind, genuine and true has been one of the truly great gifts of this journey for me.

And I can even do astrodrama now as an experiential way to teach these mysteries. That would have been unthinkable for me years ago. From 2013 Event on Maui

Question from Lyn Goldberg

One question I have is about when the overtone changes. Obviously this isn't often but within a lifetime could happen 3 or 4 times. It just so happens that I was born during one of those changes. I was born June 23, 1949.

On June 24, 1948 Venus and the Sun were exact at 2 Cancer 55 (see slide 10 for chart). That also happens to be the same degree of my Natal Sun. Then Venus became visible in the Sign of Gemini.

My natal Venus is in Cancer and maybe that is why I totally resonate with Venus in Cancer but I wonder if there is more to consider with the transition from one sign to another?

When Venus is traveling with the Sun, absorbing that energy in that Sign and then becomes visible in another Sign she is releasing, radiating or transforming that energy into another archetype. It feels significant to me.

My chart has other energies in both Gemini and Cancer and so it is difficult to be absolute in what is Venus and what is Moon/Mercury/Mars (my Gemini) but I like the idea of Venus being changing woman throughout the overtones and maybe during the rare times she conjuncts the Sun in one Sign and rises in another (it looks like about 2 complete cycles or 16 years) there is additional energy she is transforming. Thoughts to consider.

Question from Lyn Goldberg

Cayelin's Answer: You are bringing up some very interesting thoughts to consider and it is helpful to remember there are no right or wrong answers.

This is all exploratory territory. However, from the lens of Shamanic Astrology the Overtone is calculated for where Venus can be seen in the morning sky because we can have a direct experience of her at that time.

Ancient cultures would have a general sense of Venus with the Sun for 8 days and know the exact conjunction was happening during that time, but they didn't have tables that calculated the exact Venus Sun conjunction. They were however watching for her appearance in the East before Sunrise to know when to begin the cycle.

This is similar to what many cultures have done with the New Moon, using the first visible crescent of the Moon to celebrate the literally visible New Moon in the sky. It has only been in recent times that the New Moon is calculated for the time when the Sun and Moon are exactly conjunct and completely invisible.

Having said that we could imagine that ceremonies were done at the dark of the Moon and at the dark of Venus when neither are visible, honoring the end of the previous cycle and the preparation for the beginning the new cycle when they are visible once again.

Question from Lyn Goldberg

It is interesting that many astrologers do start the synodic cycles at the Sun conjunctions...because its so easy to calculate these days.

For example; Arielle Guttman's book on The Venus Star Points uses both the direct and retrograde Sun conjunctions to determine the Venus Star Point, narrowing it down to these two points only. She has successfully created a way of looking at Venus with this added imagery that works great for a lot of people.

Plus it certainly makes it easy to create the tables for this approach, however it leaves out a lot of what is going on in the Venus Cycle and where we are born into the story that can also be so richly revealing.

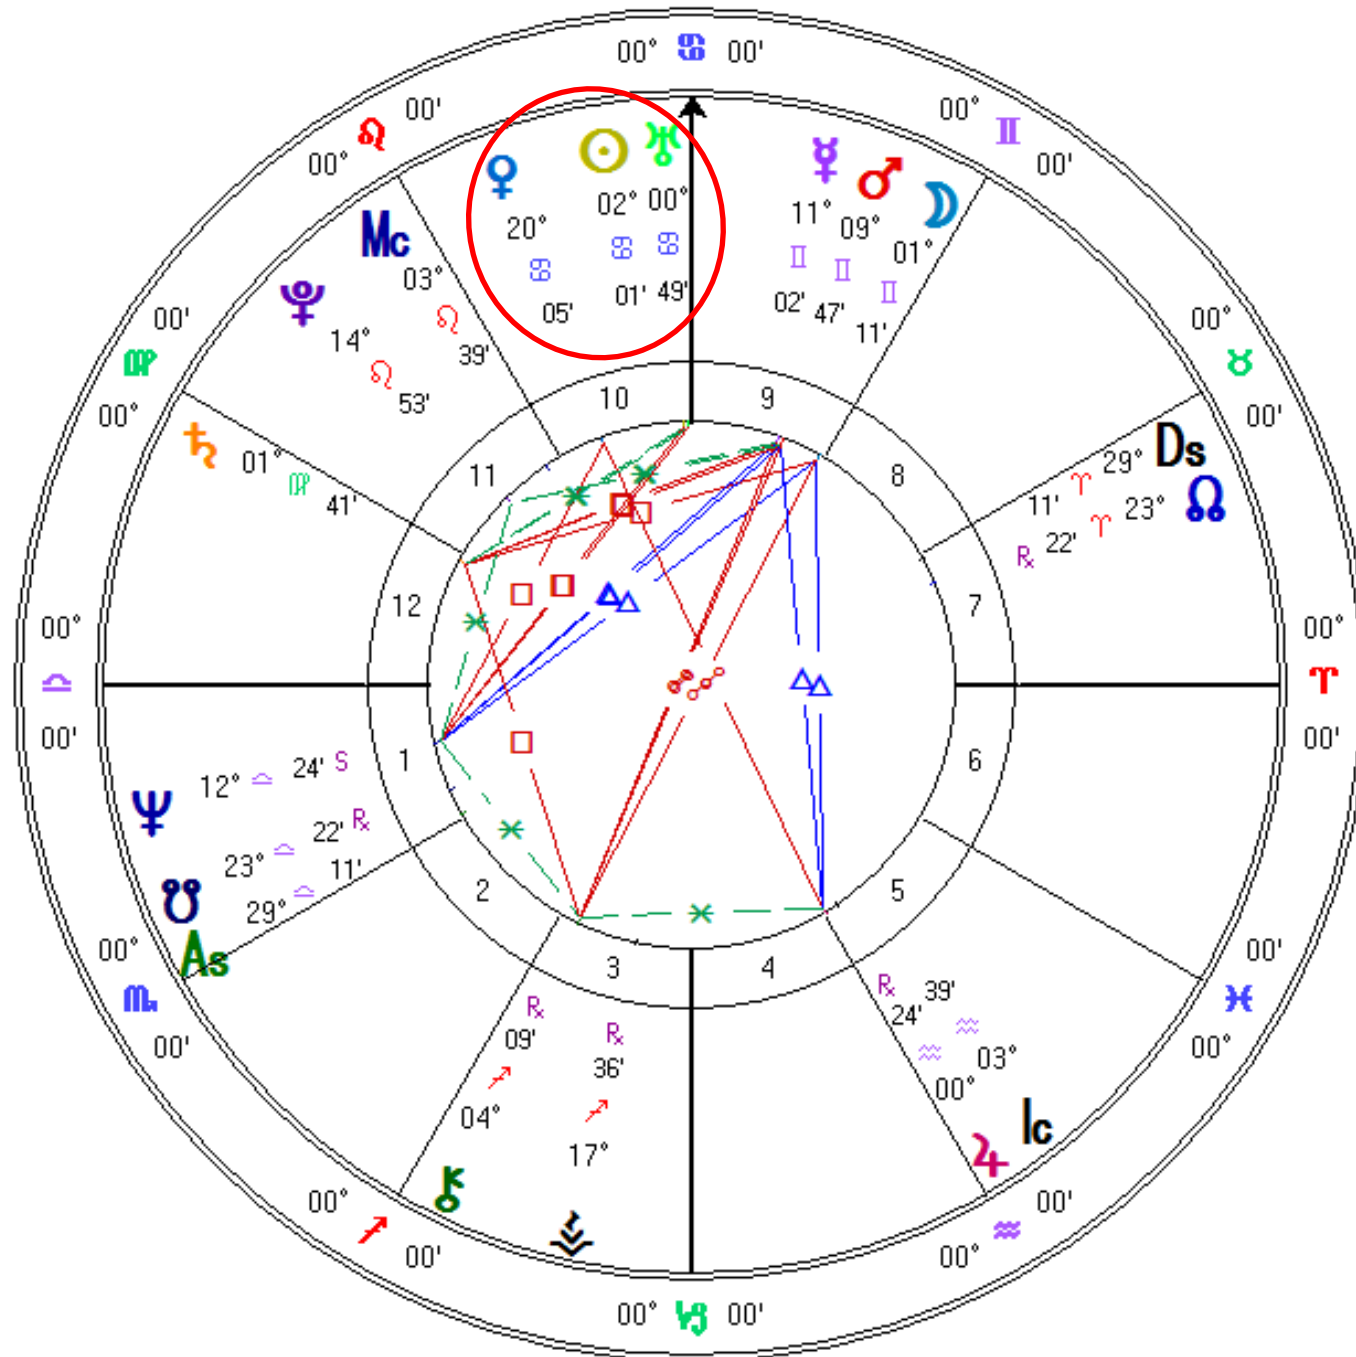

Having said all that...the best way we learn about the cycle is through our direct experience. So for those who are born into this situation where the Venus Sun conjunction prior to Venus Rising as Morning Star in a different sign, let us know what you find your experience is? And thank you Lyn...for sparking this conversation as one who has this signature!

If you have clients with this signature explore that with them and let's see how this shows up? This will be another rare timing as Venus only changes overtones every 96 to 112 years. Some will never have that experience, while others will only have it once. It is around the time of the shift to a New Overtone that the Sun conjunctions are in a different sign than the Overtone.

Sharing from Ruth McCarthy

Thank you Cayelin and Tami for sharing this wonderfully transformational work. Knowing where Venus is in the Venus Star Phase, and if at a gate (what we are now calling the Inner Venus Star Phase) gives us an opportunity to go deeper into how Venus is expressed. Being able to access the dates showing the part of the phase is very helpful, especially the information about Venus in the Underworld!

I am wondering also about having Mars retrograde? I have Mars Retrograde in Leo and how this plays out in the sacred marriage, with my Venus being a Morning Star in Scorpio, with Scorpio overtone.

When there is an emphasis on the Scorpio archetype, although the Star could be Morning or Evening, would it be fair to say that it might add a more Underworld energy to its expression?

Tami's reply: Dear Ruth, we're so glad you've joined us! Yes, absolutely having Venus in Scorpio with Scorpio Overtone, adds more of the Underworld dynamic to your experience! The question for you would be--how does your Scorpio Overtone express as the Morning Star Goddess? How do those qualities intersect?

We will explore this more as the class proceeds. Regarding Mars Retrograde it's a fascinating question, and beyond our focus in this class. I would recommend checking out the Mars course Daniel Giamario and Erik Roth have created. It's a very powerful and informative class that takes people through the entire Mars Cycle.

Sharing from Rhonda Tabor

Cancer, Pisces moon, Venus Morning Star, Scorpio Overtone

I don't know if I will be on the call since I will be on vacation heading to Tucson then California. I will catch the recording if not. I wanted to thank you both for all you do to make these classes informative and fun.

A week before that class I met the niece of a dear friend who was 12 years old and she had amazing energy! I am empathic and sensitive to all...personal and collective. I "felt" her peace and total contentment. I REMEMBERED FEELING THAT WHEN I WAS 12! Not since then had I felt that feeling.

My parents divorced and when my dad left he told me to take care of my 3 brothers and sister ranging in age from 2 to 8 years old. I have not felt content, safe or secure since then...49 years ago.

I looked at class material on root chakra. I realized all my life I've not embraced change, trusted family, felt safe and more. I went home that night and ran a bath. The water brought out my anger at how 2 adults could put so much responsibility on my 12 year old self. Then I grieved and cried for my inner 12 year old washing away all of it!

Sharing from Rhonda Tabor

Cancer, Pisces moon, Venus Morning Star, Scorpio Overtone

As a grown woman I understand my parents divorce of course. However, I now understand how I suppressed its effect on me.

Venus Alchemy and Shamanic Astrology has given me the tools to understand the last 49 years of my life now. Immediately after the last class on the Inner Venus Star Phases the Dallas tragedy of police shootings took place! All day and especially during the class I was anxious and agitated! Collectively, I think everyone has been shaken to their very root!

This is, to me, the part of Shamanic Astrology that I need to totally face and embrace. As Above, So Below. As Within, So Without. All is not always la-la-la but, I have perspective and tools now to "go with the flow."

Much Love to you Cayelin and Tami and much gratitude for this practice.
Rhonda

AND we will do our best to answer them or defer them to the appropriate class.

Some questions may be deferred to an advanced class.
Some may be part of an ongoing inquiry like the one Lyn asked.

If we missed your question, please send it to us again. We are doing our best to capture them as we go but its easy for them to disappear from our awareness with a lot to keep track of for this class...yes that is an excuse! And a good one...
