The Aries Libra Cosmic Shift

At her best the Aries Goddess is the fierce protector of the Cosmic Order, restoring balance, justice and harmony.

When the Aries Feminine hands off to the Libra Feminine, she is learning to connect powerful creative forces with others, practicing diplomacy and synergistic collaboration, to more effectively and strategically restore and maintain the Cosmic Balance.

With this Venus Retrograde we shift from Venus in Aries to Venus in Libra. The only time this shift can happen in this way in 251 years.

Within this Retrograde Window we can choose to seed the metamorphosis of our culture.

The USA is entering a larger Meta Venus Return: moving from Battle Consciousness to Peace, Love and Justice as was originally intended.

Sekhmet and Sacred Union

Sekhmet's story describes the handoff between Aries and Libra. She represents the Solar Feminine Warrior, Protector Goddess, Avenger of Wrongs, Patron of Physicians and Healers along with her ability to engage in conscious, equal, collaborative relationship.

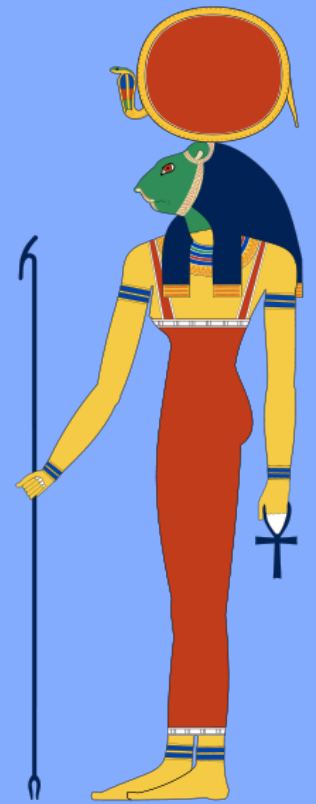

She wears the Solar Disk with Uraeus representing the power of the Mid-Day Sun, the Flame or Fire, creating the desert from her breath.

Some stories describe her as the Daughter of Ra (the Sun God) sent to Earth to restore the Cosmic Balance.

Once Balance has been restored she becomes the consort (wife) of Ptah and together they give birth to Nefertum, a healing god who predates Aesclepius.

Sekhmet, Ptah and Nefertum are referred to as the Memphis trio, known for their healing abilities and maintaining the cosmic balance Sekhmet was sent to restore.

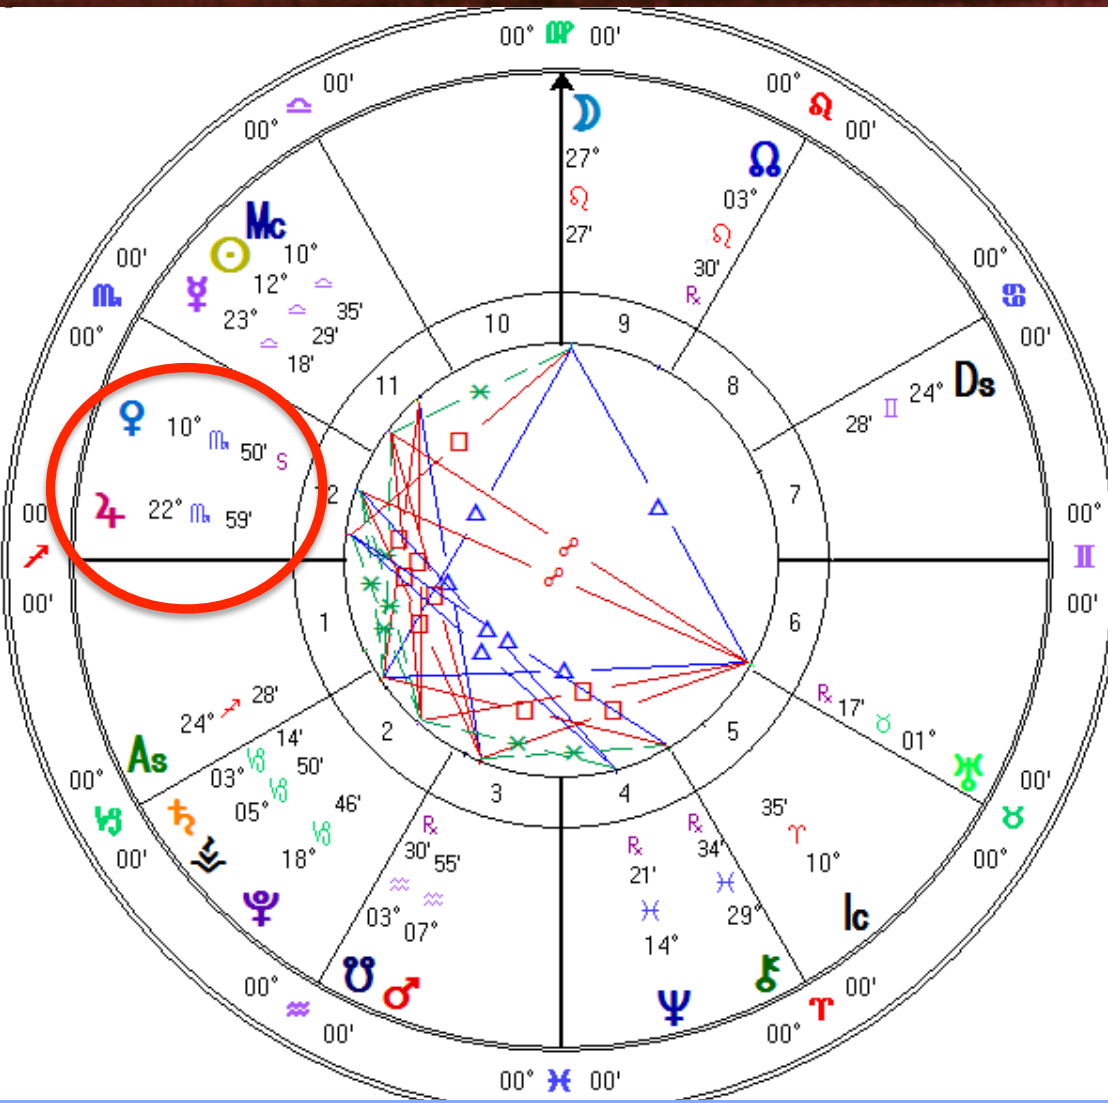

Their relationship represents the gift of co-creative, conscious, collaborative relationship. They represent the outer sacred marriage that is possible when inner wholeness is the beginning point.

Scorpio Venus Recapitulation

Venus travels through Scorpio from Sep 9 to Oct 31, just prior to the Morning Star Rise of Venus at 29 Libra. Venus returns to Scorpio Dec 2 to Jan 7.

Sep 9 to Oct 31 is when the Aries Fierce Feminine Meta Goddess synthesizes her initiation providing an opportunity to integrate and honor the evolutionary work done within the last 96 years of the Scorpio Meta Goddess.

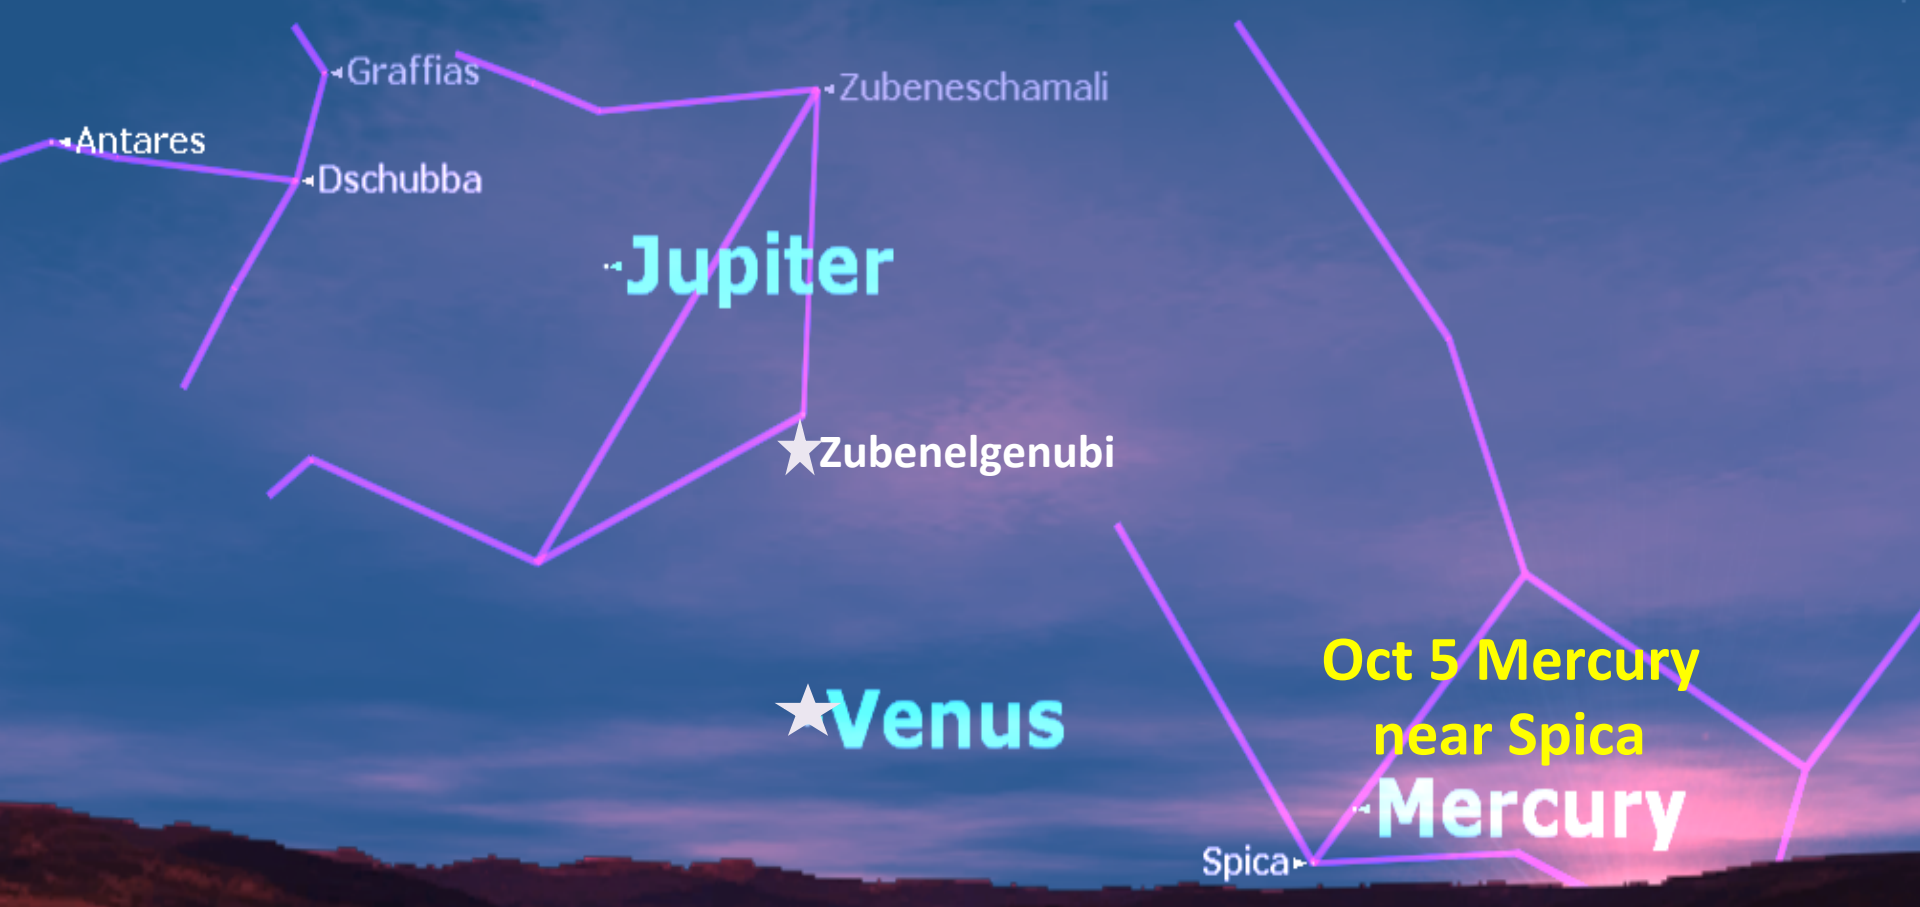

Many are feeling the intense depths of feeling erupting within women in the wake of Dr. Ford's testimony and the Me Too movement.

Scorpio Brings the Shadow to Light to Transform it.

The Scorpio Goddesses of Death and Rebirth, including Kali Ma, are now completely Present, Alive and Awake within the broader world and current culture.

Spica Star Magic

Spica is a binary star, flushed white, located in the hand of the Virgin Priestess Constellation, often seen as representing an ear of corn, or wheat. Sometimes seen as where she holds the Scales of Justice

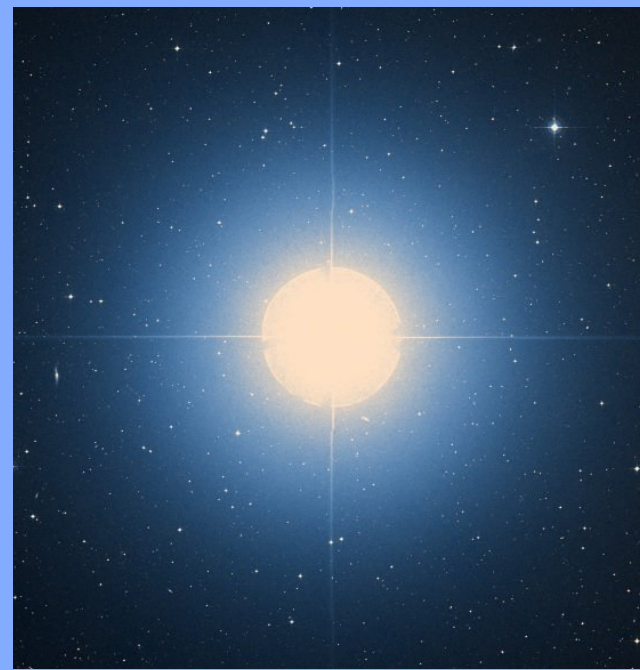

Spica is the brightest star in this constellation, long associated with women's mysteries and the sovereign, divine feminine across many cultures and ages. Many cultures used Spica as a stand-in for Venus, or the celestial embodiment of the Divine Feminine, when Venus was not visible.

Many temples were dedicated to and aligned with Spica in ancient Greece. Spica was recognized by the ancient alchemists of Persia (and beyond) as one of the 15 Behenian Stars and her power was maximized when the Moon or a planet was within 6 degrees.

Venus within 6 degrees of Spica Oct 29 – Dec 3

Her magical herb is Sage, her Crystal is the Emerald.

Spica is currently located in the seasonal sign of Libra (about 24 degrees), representing humanity's current project to evolve and uplift human relationships through the wisdom and insight of the Sovereign Divine Feminine.

The Virgin Priestess

Khambalia

Eric Morse The Living Stars History of Khambalia

The name has its roots in old Coptic and means 'Crooked Claw' ... the Swastika ... whose ancient symbolism contained the idea of secret knowledge, accessible to us, but only if one knows the way to get to it...

The word Shambala has a similar root and meaning; so has the pentagram, so has the Arabic word for five, Khamsa, may well also derive from the same piece of mystique.

Khamr, wine, also has a connection, being so often a symbol for 'the secret of life', 'the spirit' again, as well as a means to enter a transcendental (or just inebriated) state of consciousness.

Hitler shifted the swastika on its side turning it into a symbol of fear but it's a much older symbol of love, life and light

Hopi Prophecy Rock

Venus passing this star is receiving messages from the divine feminine mysteries of "secret knowledge" or the ancient knowledge that supports the creative expression of the mysteries encoded within supporting the co-creation of conscious, collaborative, loving and magical relationships

Metamorphosis - the Heart of the Venus Retrograde

Over the course of the 584.5 day Venus Synodic Cycle, Venus as Inanna goes through two Underworld initiations.

The first is the “Inanna Underworld Phase” at the heart of the cycle when Venus is with the Sun for 60 to 90 days. The Inanna Meta Goddess undergoes a ceremonial Death and Rebirth, emerging as an initiated, empowered version of her current Goddess Archetype.

The second is the Metamorphic Underworld Phase at the very end of the cycle, where the Goddess undergoes a rapid and complete metamorphosis into a new Goddess Archetype.

October 20 Venus drops into the metamorphic underworld. Rising on November 1
This is when the Aries Goddess Dies and is Reborn as the Libra Goddess. We are invited to die a good death too in this magical, mysterious time, letting go of our old limiting identities so we can be reborn completely anew.

From Marianne Williamson

Oh, they have done it now. They have done what thousands of feminists, hundreds of feminist organizations, and millions of women working as social and political activists over the years have not been able to do: they have harnessed the power of a thousand hurricanes.

It is not just that they have triggered the memories of every woman who has ever been sexually harassed or abused.

Now they have triggered the memories of every woman who has ever had her opinions ignored or her feelings scorned.

I think you might have just elected the first woman president. A fierce, giant force has just been awakened among us. And unlike Quan Yin sitting silently next to my television, we will not be silent. In the coming days and weeks and years, we will speak our truth. We will hear each other and we will believe each other. And this time, by men by women alike, we will be heard.

Voting For Our Reality!

Even if its true that the voting process is rigged its still important to vote.

Astrologer and visionary activist Caroline Casey says everything we think say and do is a vote for our reality as we are actively participate in co-creating our reality in every moment whether we are aware of it or not.

She points out that the word vote is the root word of “devote” so voting is a way of actively devoting ourselves to taking additional responsibility in consciously co-creating our reality.

It is through acts of devotion we begin to see a new reality where we all work together to co-create peace and plenty for everyone.
