Spica is in the constellation of the Virgin Priestess (a.k.a Virgo)

The Greeks and Romans saw this constellation as the Great Mother Goddess Cybele with her lion-drawn chariot symbolizing the Lion constellation sitting next to the Virgin Priestess.

Cybele, had several incarnations or manifestations.

Her celebrations included drumming, dancing, singing, and chanting, often all night long.

Return of the Shekinah Venus Mercury

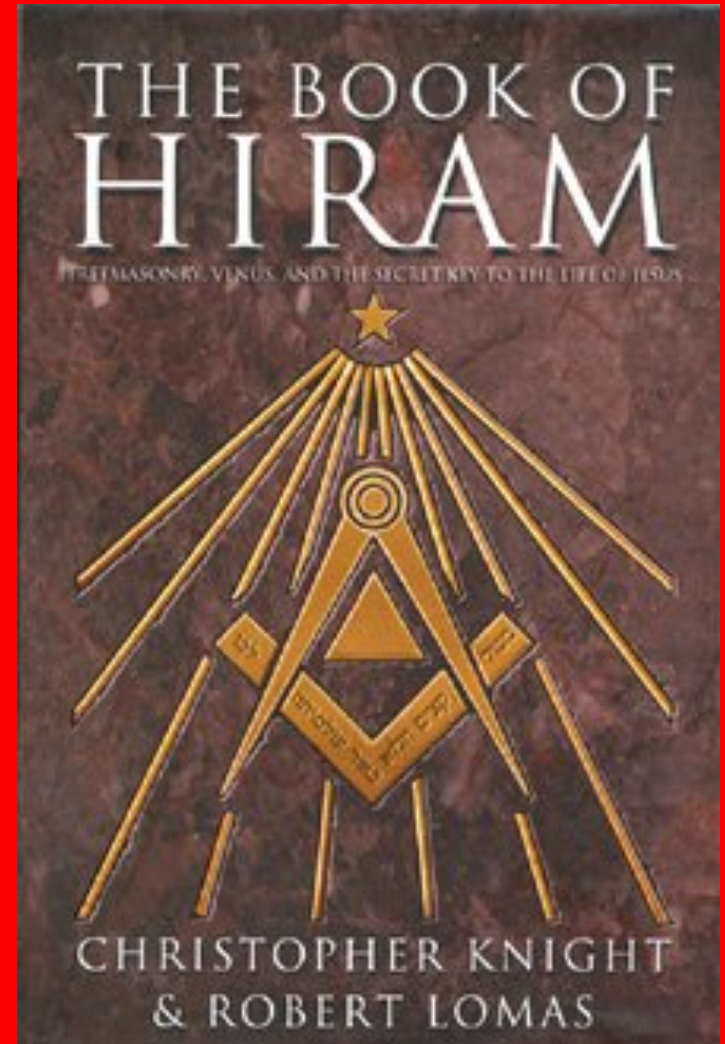

Technically NOT a classic Shekinah cycle

However the nearly 4 months they are within 10 degrees is significant with last conjunction visible in the evening sky on October 30 in the first Libra cycle in 155 years.

40 years to return this part of the sky in the same season.

The Book of Hiram describes Mercury and Venus together in Hebraic Culture was seen as the Return of the Shekinah or the Divine Feminine Presence Lighting our World.

Their research includes building of the Temple of Solomon – timed to capture the light of the Shekinah when Venus and Mercury appeared together in the eastern morning sky.

The Sacred Geometry of Mercury and Venus creates a Triquetra or Sacred KNOT as seen in Celtic and Norse mythology and cave paintings at least 5000 years old.

The triquetra represents the Power of Three: The Feminine Trinity of Maiden, Mother, Crone composed of three interlacing vesicas forming a continuous protective design: The Power of Love, the Power of Choice and the Power of our Life Force energy to manifest and create our reality.

The three vesicas (representing the path of Mercury) are interlaced with a surrounding circle (representing Venus) linking the two with the Divine Feminine.

Cultivating and Living a Magical Life between Past, Present, and Future

The Triquetra: the rings of power come together in places of intersection - between ideas, between experiences, between Intention where potential and power come into form.

Magic happens in the between.

Between Day and Night

Time and Eternity

Venus and Mercury

Human and Divine

Nature and Culture

Good and Evil - Right and Wrong,

Life and Death - Light and Dark

And Between Each Other.

No Separation Including
Seeming Opposites or Duality

One does not exist without the other.

Libra And the Root Chakra

We are All - Women and Men - bringing forth the newly initiated Relational Goddess, strengthening and raising our Vibration on this Ascension Journey.

At the Root Chakra We Ask Ourselves:

How Does the Healthy, Grounded Relational Goddess Care for Herself – so she does NOT lose who she IS when in relationship to others?

How do we Rise Together as Ambassadors of Love grounded in Feminine Wisdom?

How do we bring our unique Vision and Creativity into the World knowing and experiencing we can accomplish far more together than on our own?

Ilhan Omar: Libra Goddess on the World Stage

Ilhan Omar (age 38), Congresswoman from Minnesota, has Libra Sun and Jupiter. She is one of the first two Muslim women to serve in Congress. She embodies Libra's dedication to justice, democratic principles and the need to honor every place around the wheel.

Libra naturally resonates with the intersectional feminist perspective that the interweaving relationship between identities such as race, class, nationality and gender must be considered in understanding an individual's experience.

"I am not a Somali representative. I am not a Muslim representative. I am not a millennial representative. I am not a woman representative. I am a representative who happens to have all of these marginalized identities and can understand the intersectionality of all of them in a very unique way."

Libra Meta Goddess at the Root Chakra Gate

Moving Through Libra

She is finding her ground, her center in the realm of primary partnership with self and other.

We are finding our way into an experience of belonging, in our own skin and within the village whose frequency matches our own vibration.

We are seeking and finding those we can most dynamically co-create and cultivate intimacy - ultimately constructing the New Earth culture.

Demons at this Chakra Gate, may cause us to return to the dark experience of NOT belonging, to ourselves or the larger community of life.

Time to shake off the false belief in separation and remember what we already know in our bones - we belong! We belong deeply and wholly in this world and to each other.

Libra Meta Goddess at the Root Chakra Gate

Moving Through Scorpio

She is establishing her most primal bond with her body, the Earth and her empowering ancestors.

As she reclaims her capacity to deeply feel and experience her sensuality, she is (we are) dropping into a growing sense of belonging and coming home to self, transforming all that stands in the way.

She cultivates a grounded and strengthening relationship with her emotions, nourishing her and helping her feel safe and secure.

She is cultivating a healthy relationship with death - ever more skillfully navigating the natural cycles of letting go and releasing - opening to the deepest levels of transformation and aliveness.

Instead of always asking “where do I belong? - a question based on shortage - consider reversing your definition of the word from a noun to a verb, in which belonging becomes a practice of generosity such as - “I belong myself to that which I love.”

Rather than a disappointed wanting to belong, this is the practice to “be the longing.” Maybe it will take a lifetime, or maybe only the young ones who come up around you will feel the benefits, or maybe it will sneak up on you in a sudden moment as you sit feasting with your loved ones that you belong to this beautiful village you’ve made with your life.

Belonging: Remembering Ourselves Home
by Toka-pa Turner

Libra Insights Fitting in Versus Belonging Homeplay Practice

Fitting In is a significant Barrier to Belonging. True belonging doesn't require you to change who you are - it requires you to be who you are - both vulnerable and brave. ~Brene Brown

What Interests You? Hang out with people who share your interests.

What Brings You Joy? Find time to do those things.

Make a list of things you do to fit in that feel bad, unfulfilling, less than who you really are.

Who would you look like, sound like, be like if you weren't fitting in?

What action could you take to let one fitting in thing go or change it somehow?

How would your life be? What would your days look like? Who would you be spending time with? Choose to live life defined by YOU and your expectations – not trying to fit into what you imagine others expect of you.

Be sure to notice the impact of your actions and words. Are they helping you to feel more connected to others?

Start small and practice belonging to yourself first by being your true self – if you notice you are NOT being true to yourself - commit to changing those habits or ways of being.

Work your way - step by step - to being more of your magnificent self?
