Parvati as Relational Goddess

Parvati is a Goddess of relatedness. When you tune into Parvati you Tune into your own longing for sacred partnership. --Sally Kempton

Parvati and Shiva's love story is perfect for our current time with Venus in a Scorpio/Libra cycle and Mars in an Aquarius cycle - demonstrating passionate and empowered love as a path to spiritual enlightenment.

The story begins with Shiva removing himself from creation after the death of his beloved wife in the ultimate spiritual bypass, leaving the world in a state of imbalance.

Parvati continued

Brahma calls on the Great Goddess Maya to bring Shiva back into the world and she incarnates as Parvati, who meets Shiva in a vision and falls madly in love with him.

Like the co-dependent Libra woman, she is starstruck, projecting all of her own power onto Shiva. Even a great Goddess is capable of forgetting her own divinity.

Brahma convinces his son Kama, the God of desire, to pierce Shiva's heart with his arrows while Parvati is in his Presence. Shiva feels desire stir within him upon opening his eyes and seeing Parvati, knows at once what has happened. Enraged, he kills Kama. Parvati pleads with him to restore the Desire God as the world cannot continue without him.

Shiva remains unmoved, returning to his meditation and continuing to block out the world. This is when Parvati the maiden makes a commitment in her heart to win her beloved not through feminine allure or manipulation, but by cultivating her own mastery.

Through months, years, perhaps ages of dedication to her spiritual development, Parvati's personal powers grow so great that Shiva cannot help but be awakened and through his love for her, return to the world. Such is the power of the EMPOWERED Libra Goddess!

Parvati combines the Scorpio qualities of desire with Libran dedication to the Sacred Marriage - the work to meet her innermost self, in order to be capable of the deepest bond with her beloved - this potent combination can even awaken the detached Aquarius Masculine into a desire for devoted partnership.

Lakshmi and Vishnu

Each Powerfully Bringing their Personal Strength to their Union

Healthy self-existence is powerful power that maintains the cosmic order within and around us.

Vishnu's primary form is the resting coiled serpent known as Shesha.

The serpent is an expression of life force energy (Kundalini).

Vishnu a deity of Shanti (Peace) never sleeps. He also does not tolerate egoic weakness driving desires.

Lakshmi (meaning good luck) is the goddess of light, beauty, good fortune and wealth. Money or wealth is also an expression of healthy life force and the ability to express personal power in the world of form. She is equal to Vishnu – not the same but equally powerful!

The Gods cheered when Lakshmi married Vishnu. Uniting their strength (life force) through love, beauty, health, wealth and wellbeing. Their marriage is said to have occurred during the churning of the ocean - enlivening the essence of life giving power and nourishment.

Inspired Collaborative Libra Action at the 3rd Chakra

- What do you most desire to accomplish and achieve in collaboration with others?
- Cultivate physical, mental and emotional strength as a way to embrace a relationship with your personal power that also nurtures the relationships most important to you.
- Know you can accomplish much more when you cooperate and collaborate with others from a place of strength.
- Spend time with others who share your ideas, perspective and healthy practices (yoga, fitness, nutrition, meditation etc.)
- Value the gifts you and others bring to whatever projects or causes you are co-creating.

Libra Meta Goddess

Venus in Capricorn Solar
Plexus Chakra Dates:
Nov 28 to December 19

We are finding our beloved tribe, our kindreds, our place of belonging in the circle of life, in heart-centered connection with Gaia, the Cosmos, and all the forces of life that connect us to the innate magic of the Universe.

We establish boundaries to empower the richest, deepest, intentional and nourishing bonds and sustaining relationships with our inner and outer circles.

We thank the Grandmothers for helping us choose relationships to support us in shining our truest light - so we can strengthen these friendships and choose them as priorities for our lives.

Libra Meta Goddess at the Solar Plexus Chakra

Venus in Aquarius Solar Plexus Chakra
Dates: December 19 to December 27

We are waking up to the power within us to choose relationship and community of great liberation and freedom, those that strengthen our ability to shine in our unique ways, to open to our highest and wildest visions.

We claim our right to be wholly and fully and eccentrically ourselves, Starseeds, Lightworkers, Cosmic Visionaries all—we claim and stand in our power as agents of r-evolutionary change, centered in our hearts yet accessing the vast intelligence of Gaia and the Cosmos, coming together in circle to create a world of equality, harmony, the actualizing of our fullest potential as individuals and as one Global Human Family.

Return to Self Empowerment Practice

Practice stopping throughout the day to see where your attention is focused on other people in disempowering ways.

For example, halt when you compare yourself, fear others' opinions of you, or internally judge or "manage" others in your thoughts.

When you catch yourself in these habits of thought, replace it with a NEW habit of asking empowering questions to refocus on your own priorities, your own dreams, actions you can take to empower yourself or others.

For example if comparing, pivot to make a list of all your personal qualities or accomplishments that you are proud of. If judging another, ask - how do these qualities live in me and what's one action I can take to become more empowered in this area?
