Third Eye Claiming Home Play Cultivate an Active Dreaming Practice

Record your dreams every day. If you can't remember them, write how you feel, any sensations in your body, thoughts, images when you first wake up. Go through the Lightning Dreamwork Game in your journal AND with your Venus Buddy or other partner at least once a week.

Especially important - take action to honor your dreams. For example, wear the clothes you wore in your dream, call the person who showed up, research symbolism of the animal, create something - a poem, a painting, a performance, from your dream.
