In-Depth Home Play: Venus Cycle Integration

Venus Cycle Recap (Left Brain/Akashic Records) Using your Venus Journal, or other journals or memory, revisit the timeline of this Venus in Libra Cycle. You might divide it according to Descending Chakra Gates, Underworld, and Ascending Chakra Gates. Journal on each time frame and create a little summary for yourself of what happened.

Shadow Records/Meeting Your Demons: Journal honestly on what you regret, missed opportunities, demons you feel are still with you.

Book of Life” Positive Review: Journal on these events from just the positive perspective, wearing “rose colored glasses.” Especially around your regrets (above) what were positive outcomes from your choices or lack of action?

Soul Star Chakra Integration/Right Brain: Using reflections from above, create a Mantra and/or choose images for each Chakra and create:

- A Vision Board
- An Oracle Deck for each gate and the underworld
- Or Choose an object for each chakra to place on your Venus Altar

Take time in your Venus Journal to explore the most challenging relationship dynamics emerging over the course of the Venus in Libra Cycle. Creatively explore these themes as they might have played out in a very dramatic form in previous lifetimes - who have you been. Consider this as if you are a character in a historic novel, who were the individuals from your current life in past lifetimes?

What played out in the past that is still playing out now? Re-enter one or more dramatic scenes from these past life dramas (one that reflects the most chronic current challenge) as yourself, offering healing support and resolution in some form, through your own actions as well as Divine intervention.

Observe how the dynamics in your current life shift as a result, holding strong intention that you have effectively healed and cleared karmic relationship dynamics once and for all.
