I'm a water girl all the way when it comes to my Venus. I have Venus in Cancer in the Inanna Underworld phase – double water, double feeling realm. I'm meant to grow through feeling my feelings, especially my shadow feelings, like grief. Moving from my Virgo moon (conjunct underworld Pluto) towards my Leo ascendant, I've got to find a way from the impersonal, earth-serving priestess to radiant self-love somehow; a path in need of alchemy for sure.

I see my Venus, Sun, Mars conjunction in Cancer (all square underworld Chiron BTW) providing that exact vehicle for transformation. It's through underworld initiation cycles, going into my shadow, facing my inner darkness and feeling my scariest feelings that I find compassion, nurture and mother myself, into true radical self-love. The paths of our charts never cease to amaze me in their perfection!

Learning that my Venus lives in the underworld has been extremely validating and has helped me to better understand my life experience. I now know that my Soul's evolutionary journey, in this lifetime, is to regularly go through underworld initiations, to go through shamanic death and rebirth cycles. That is extremely helpful information to have! My Soul's growth makes the intense experiences I have had this lifetime worthwhile. That's an intent that takes me from WTF to something I can get behind!

Sheridan Semple

Now, I'm beginning to see a deeper purpose beyond my own growth or serving others who have similar paths. I am beginning to feel a call to make the underworld a place we can all honor and trust, a place of deep inner healing for us all.

I feel this would help us move towards the Divine Feminine, the Goddess, the dark aspects of the Goddess that have been so subsumed to the hidden, denied underworld of our psyches. That denial holds up the system that makes women inferior, that sees white as good and black as bad, that focuses solely on the light without honoring and reveling in the dark.

I love that I share this on Samhain today, a day to honor going to the underworld and pay homage to the Dark Goddess!

? What made you decide to follow the Inanna myth over the Ishtar myth? I know you reference both, but talk about the Sumerian myth more, so I'm curious why. Thanks so much!! Love these Venus classes!!

In part because Inanna is the original myth - meaning it came before Ishtar – meaning Ishtar is based on the Inanna myth. So they are essentially the same myth with different names for the different characters. It is less confusing to go with the original myth but also interesting and perhaps helpful to know there are other versions of Venus as a Goddess out there including Astarte from Phoenician, Greek, and Egyptian mythology primarily as evening star

Sheridan Semple Questions:

I get my Venus is in Cancer and my MetaGoddess is Virgo. Is there a "Meta" MetaGoddess, meaning is there an overarching Goddess to each 8 year cycle?

In the last Evening Star class, I asked about the MetaGoddess and I think Tami said something about each November-ish a new 8 year cycle starts, so does that make there be an "overtone" to the 8 year cycle as well? Like Libra started the last one and it seems like Scorpio was the MetaGoddess for all the November cycles going back a while.

Answer: This topic will be covered in greater depth in the next Q & A so for now the short answer is (if understanding your question correctly) NO there is not an overarching Meta MetaGoddess every 8 years. There are 5 Meta-Goddess on the world stage every 8 years and then on the 8th year Venus returns close to the same place it was 8 years earlier and that is the Meta Goddess you have at birth.

A new Venus Cycle starts every 19 months with a different Meta-Goddess as Venus rises in a different season. That is why in June 2020 a new cycle began with the Gemini Meta Goddess. Every eight years Venus rises again in the same season. This has to do with the Venus Pentagonagram that will be a big feature of the Meta Goddess Q & A.

Sheridan Semple Questions and Insight:

I went back through all of the timings of my Venus returns WOW! That was powerful! - and noticed, yes I was born during the Virgo MetaGoddess, but every single of my Venus returns, following that Virgo birth cycle, is in Leo So I'm wondering what that's all about. I'm assuming a variation of that happens for everyone and I'm sure it must mean something! BTW Leo is my Ascendant, so I think that's interesting too!

Answer: This is something you will understand even more clearly when we get to the Meta Goddesses. Many do Experience a shift in their Meta Goddess and many do NOT depending on how long that Meta Goddess has been on the world stage before you were born.

Awareness:

Discovering I'm in the Inanna Underworld phase has summed up my entire life in a way I understand so much more deeply. Pluto is conjunct my Virgo Moon; Chiron square my Cancer Mars, Sun and Venus; Scorpio is on my IC, but somehow discovering my Venus is in the Underworld phase has made this all so much more understandable and even do-able.

Instead of feeling buffeted around by all this Underworld activity, I could finally understand it is my path and I could accept that! I get it! I just need to die and be reborn OVER and OVER and OVER. It has a purpose! It's my Soul's evolutionary path! That I can dig! Whew!

Sheridan Semple Insight:

It's not about living through hellish experiences and hurting so much, wondering what the heck is wrong with me, feeling victimized, it's about evolving and that I'm totally into! What a HUGE relief! So powerful!

I can do the death part now, maybe it doesn't feel great, but I can embrace it because that's my path and the path to the LIGHT!! Thank Goddess for the Light of the Underworld cycle, huh?!?

So, in that "light" I've been going through another round of death and rebirth around my mom, really getting to my core wound - did I mention I'm in my Chiron return right now too 😊 - and I've been finding gratitude (along with lots and lots of grief and anger, something I'm totally feeling so Underworld deeply) for how abusive my mom has been, because she really set me up to learn my Soul's lessons this lifetime.

It's so painfully perfect. As I'm coming to this awareness, learning about my Underworld phase (thanks to you two), I serendipitously talked to my aunt today. She's super religious, and we were talking about my mom, and she said she thinks my mom is possessed by a demon. (My mom has narcissistic personality disorder, and I think that's how my aunt reconciles it in a religious way.)

Sheridan Semple Insight:

Anyway, it triggered what you've been saying about the Daemons in the Evening Star class, and seemed to fit perfectly with what I've been finding appreciation for with my mom and the abuse (for the record, not in a light polarized way, but in a deeply hurt to my core lots of crying, but seeing her contribution to my Soul's intent to evolve way), and I thought, Hey, my mom could be seen as one of my Daemons accompanying me on my journey back up from the Underworld. Right?!?

See what I mean? Literally she's helping my Soul's evolution through being the vehicle to the shadow pain of the Underworld, yet accompanying me back up to the light of the healing. I mean she literally gave birth to me in the Underworld time. How crazy cool is this!?! Deep stuff!

Lots of grief to express still, but wow I'm getting this nice Aquarius type view of it all right now! Another side note, my mom has crazy Virgo everything on her chart, it's my MetaGoddess, and I have Pluto conjunct my Virgo Moon (Uranus too, as well as Jupiter in Virgo conjunct my Ascendant).

Long share, but just had to share! Much thanks to you both! 💕 And, lots of love and appreciation always.

Sheridan Semple

One more question: in the morning star video Tami mentioned timing, particularly around releasing the book you two are writing at the crown chakra of morning star phase because its a good time to birth new things (if I'm remembering correctly). I wondered if you could speak to what are best timings for various things according to the Venus phases, not sure of specific examples to ask but just generally wondered. Thanks again!

Answer (Tami): In depth-research into Venus Cycle Returns and with clients reveals a pattern with the Inanna Underworld as a Conception Point and the Crown Chakra Evening Star Inner Phase as a Birth Point. For example, literal conception, or looking for a home in the Underworld and birth of baby or getting keys to the home at the Crown Chakra Gate. I've had success with clients in Venus Returns viewing the Crown Chakra Gate (or even 8th Chakra) as a target date for them to manifest something in their lives that they can work consciously toward through their Evening Star Journey.

Sheridan Semple Insight:

I did my first reading incorporating my clients Venus star phase 🌟 and it was PROFOUND!!

She was so excited and completely validated her life experience! 🙌 AMAZING!!

Thanks so much for sharing this info!

Interestingly, she's almost exactly 16 years older than me (2 days off) and we have a TON of stuff on our charts that are the same, including the same Underworld phase, but also same Venus sign ♀ (& Sun since we're Underworld gals) and Metagoddess ♀ and obviously go through the same Venus return cycles.

How freaky cool is that?!? 😎

Oh and same Moon ♀!!

My friend called her my astrological doppelgänger! 😂 Super excited for class tomorrow!

Luna Way

I just started the class recently, so I'm a bit fuzzy about what to write about! I do understand I am a Morning Star.

My natal Venus is Aquarius. I have taken the Mini Course from SAMS, but other than my beautiful daughter-in-law who is Aquarius, I haven't really related with Aquarius.

Cayelin has read my natal chart; I'm all Aries, Scorpio, and my favorite planet Pluto. I do not even know what my Inner Star Phase is; it could be my Venus return cycle, that just finished in June 2020.

So, in this paper I will connect to my Morning Star Phase, my Meta Goddess a little about the Underworld Phase, and what I understand with Venus in Aquarius for me. My birthday is 3/24/55, 9:24pm, Las Vegas Nevada.

My Morning Star Phase is: Date: 20 March 1955, Meta Goddess: Scorpio, Venus Event: Moon, Venus Sign: 18 Aquarius 48, Phase of Cycle: 4th gate of Compassion of Heart Chakra, Phase Angle: -40 47, Venus Star Phase: Morning, Sun: 29 Pieces 35.

I am a Morning Star adding Fire pretty much describing it all for me. I have Moon in Aries and it is fueled by my Aries Sun. I am very comfortable and use a lot of fire in my life. I am a very Yang person internally and externally. I burn it off by walking and qigong, otherwise it can get a bit warm and anxiety rises.

Luna Way

When I was younger it came out in fistfights on the playground. I do have a lot of passion about what I am doing and I am always willing to share information about a book I am reading, project I am working on, or the latest health information. I do have to have a purpose and when I do, it makes me move ahead and feel better.

I cannot remember a time in my life that I didn't feel a sacred purpose to be on this planet. I have always been a Spiritual Warrior and have searched for Spiritual paths to find as many answers as possible. I have never joined any one religion but have read, studied, and taken classes or rituals with many different faiths and practices.

I feel deep down all of them are saying the same thing "it's LOVE". Currently, I am studying Buddhism and Meditation, which really gives me the tools to be able to step back and witness what, is going on and not just blurt out or jump in without knowing what is happening.

I can just walk into a room and if another powerful female is in that same room that happens to be in charge, she will attack me in some way. I have dealt with this a good part of my life. In the last 10 years it has calmed down, but I can be disliked for my bold, bright, powerful self.

Luna Way

These days I prefer to be a loner or I think of it as a She Bear who is just working on the inner world. I've been called furious Mama Bear many times. I still laugh about this: but in the 1980's and 1990's, when some men were really threaten by woman in their power, I would have neighbor women tell me that their husbands didn't want them to talk to me.

One man even came over himself and told me not to talk to his wife. Funny isn't it, all I had done was wave hello or said hello; I didn't even know their names yet.

I always thought all this fire, yang, power, bold and bright Spiritual Warrior was just my Moon and Sun in Aries and now I see I even have more fuel to my blazing flame.

The Shadow side is so very true for me. I have really tried to keep my face and body language quiet in different situations where I need patience with others. I try to see a person's inner strength and vitality even if their flame has gone out. I can usually find it in their smile.

People always tell me I'm a very patient person, they have no idea how the fire burns inside. I explained it to a friend who has a lot of fire in her chart, it's like walking down the sidewalk and I'm 3 blocks ahead and I turn around to find my friends just stepping out their door to go for a walk with me. Patience is huge and the understanding that not everyone has all this energy.

Luna Way

I have been working with the Green Tara Goddess. POWERFUL WOMAN, she is incredible. In the book of ceremonies with all 21 different Tara's is the Black Wrathful Tara page 157 in the book: Tara by Dr. Rachael Wooten. Wrathful Tara is Inanna; the ceremony is very powerful and cleansing.

The sacrifice is very interesting. I always had dreams of being walked up to the top of a steaming volcano and then pushed in as a sacrifice.

I was in the military and station in Hawaii and I didn't like the place at all.

An astrologer, reading places I have lived in my incarnations, told me that I had been sacrificed many times there and that was why I probably didn't like Hawaii.

My Meta Goddess is in Scorpio along with my Rising sign. I have gone on many, many, more than I can count journeys into the depths of Mother Earth and my Soul. I work with Grandmother and she doesn't play around at all when I need to learn or do something in a deep way.

When I was just a young child I would sink into the depths of the shadows and I have met many Spirit Guides there to help me through life. Now, with Buddhist Meditations and working with Tara among other Goddesses I have been able to see my reactions to the world and have been able to see some of my deeper emotions that I can clear out and learn to observe my world in a deeper more meaningful way.

Luna Way

I still have that Fire and Shadow, but I can look at how I react to the world without judging myself. It's not easy, I told a great friend the other day, "I'll be working on this for many years to come."

Probably because of my Scorpio and Pluto, I relate well with the Underworld cycle. The deep feelings of Scorpio and the Shamanic Death and Rebirth I find intriguing.

Dying of my old self and rebirth to a new self is very powerful. Something the two of you said was to celebrate or pay attention to my new self, enjoy it. I don't think I do that enough I'm usually off on the next journey.

The very cool thing is my Grandchild will be born in the Underworld Phase between 13 February 2021 to 12 April 2021. Her/His Uncle (my oldest son) is actually born in the Metamorphic Phase. The rest of the family is a mix of Morning and Evening Star Phases.

My Venus is in the 4th House of Aquarius, Conjunct with my IC and 19 degrees from Chiron in the same sign. My Venus is in Opposition with my MC and Mercury. Venus is Square my Saturn, AS, and Mars.

Reading from my notes from my SAMS class about Aquarius the one thing that really stands out for me is my FREEDOM. I have to have it or I am miserable.

Luna Way

I also relate to the being different or Unique, I've never fit into a category or style it's always just been who I am. I also have never felt like I was from here, always different. I will learn more as we move along in the Venus classes.

Cayelin mention in my last reading that Jupiter will be expanding my Venus in Aquarius in 2021. This Conjunction will start on 12/21/2020, and will expand my Feminine.

I am really enjoying the Venus Signature class; it is helping me to understand others and myself. It is humorous; I mentioned that I work with Grandmother. Well she made me look at the email from SAMS that had the Venus Signature Class on it, she told me something important was on that email.

Then, I saw the class and she just keep pushing me to signup. I didn't really understand everything until the introduction video to the class the very last slide. It had the 13 Indigenous Grandmother's pictured on it, I held my breath and then you both said they were part of the beginning of this class. Then I understood Grandmother fully.

I went to see the 13 Indigenous Grandmothers in Montana with my two very close friends. The Grandmother I work with is part of a Grandmother group I work with deep inside Mother Earth. So, there you go that's why I'm with you two in this class. Everything has a plan and luckily we don't always know why, because we may not choose to go where we should go. Blessings and Love, Luna

Celia Macqueen

I began the Venus signature series today October 16, 2019, listening to the Star Phase Overview...

Insights are flooding in, which is apt because my Venus Star Phase (VSP) is Innana Underworld! So, water and those pesky feelings ;) 😊

I live in an area of the UK that has many Springs, we actually gather our drinking water from the springs and I Love it!

There is a strong "Feminine Presence" in this land and last night as I was tuning into water I felt "Information come in"...

"What if the water of your body upgraded, what if you allowed and received more and more Light into the water of your body?" The sense of this is powerful transformation. ❤️

And a practice.

A Gift. ❤️

Another insight has been about trauma, when I was 3. I was sexually assaulted and basically left for dead! I did die!

Celia Macqueen

There has been a great deal of healing around this over the past 2 decades. One aspect I have struggled with has been to "See the gift of this!"

So when I read the question...

"In what ways have my darkest initiations served my greatest experiences of empowerment?" I reacted with resistance, the old story of "I don't know" and "IT didn't - came up in my awareness, however... I have seen how that dark experience has served me...

I lay on the ground stunned, numb, in shock, leaving my body... I was Done! I heard a sound, and felt a Song... HER Song, the song of The All singing through fungi, they sang me back into my body and soothed. They Sang of softness and Love of the Tender and Powerful Embrace of Source that is Everything!

I realized today that what I gained from That dark initiation is SHE is Always present, No matter how dark or terrifying, SHE is always with me!

Even when, out of some misperceived notion I tried to keep HER out of my life, it felt safer after the attack, I believed I was attacked because of my light!

SHE is Always With Me.

SHE is Always With All of US!

SHE is US!

That, This is TRUTH.

Celia Macqueen

For decades unconsciously I gave the fear more power than love and even as I began to ReMember and See again, it still had sway over me.

I have asked for help, for divine intervention with this over and over again, yet still holding onto "But I have to protect myself", the reactive fear states would come up instantly...

I have beaten myself silly over not letting go, been harsh to my body, experienced self loathing, self hatred, addiction to suffering... Your average Partriachal cocktail ;)

I Now I stand at The Gateway of New birth, Real and Deep as I journey with Inanna, Venus and those pesky feelings ;) into the Underworld!

I am Grateful and Raw and So Ready to Let go and Begin again!
And That is the exciting Bit... All New As Goddess Embodied ❤️

Additional Insights: As Inanna Underworld Venus Star Phase the element of water is strong for me in this journey. I have noticed twice of late being in the bath a sinking into a deep "journey" Full of information, most about clearing:))))). The water "holds" and assists with deep shiftings. My body loves this..."Feels like home" she says.

Athena MoonShine So powerful! Thank you for sharing! ❤️🌀

What if the waters of our body could be upgraded... and let more light in... WOW

Fay Senner So much strength and wisdom in your underworld story. I am intrigued by the Song you heard coming through the moss and fungi that brought you back to life and to Source. It makes me think the faerie realm is real. Thank you. 🦋❤️

Rebecca Coble I want to shrink myself and climb through that tree gate... into a world of magic and green. Smells like moss and lit by lightning bugs and little people. No news cycles and only other dreamers, allowed! 🍄 That is all that will be left behind!

Sarah Honu-Heart Gallant Thank you so much for this powerful sharing - you painted a visual and feeling picture of your initiation with the energy of your words igniting all of the senses - the current opening to a new day is exciting.....magical

Rebecca Coble I have been working on the star phase overview the last 2 days. It certainly is thought provoking. I am taking notes, then listening, then more notes. I wish everyone could/would take the dive. No doubt, I am not the same person who started the Venus Alchemy classes. Kind of fragile, sensitive, touchy, and itching to express it. Just really blessed to have this body of work. You said it so well in this post. Gonna be 70 next month, and the main thing is, 2020! I never expected to still be here. 🌈

Sarah Gallant Sharing, Insights and Questions

I'm excited to have signed up for this series again. The first time was an enlightening experience that affirmed so much of the past, empowered the present, and inspired me as I anticipated the future...

Discovering that I was born in the in-between phase of Morning Star was so incredibly validating - and since that time of the first signature series journey, additional insights and knowings have come.

My Between phase of the Morning Star Phase is before Venus makes the first conjunction with the Moon thus before she began her descent into the underworld.

For me the between phase began as a sense of profound alienation, a sense of not belonging and being out of step and out of tune with society at large. There are other chart factors to support this and the between phase seemed to enhance the experience and also created the portal out and into a new way of being .

Perception is key - Early on I felt like I was trapped between worlds - and was not yet able to perceive this energetic between space as one of magic and mystery - looking back I've found writings and art that illustrate this healing journey.

My intention is to weave this all together in coherent and cohesive fashion.

I've discovered that key pieces were created during personal Venus returns - and that there is a profound connection as well to a system called the Gene Keys.

A couple of things that have and do feel to characterize the in-between for me are a love of exploring many systems and practices pulling in what resonates and creating my own way of working from what does!

I wonder if this is true for anyone else who may have been born in a between phase?

A need to feel and be present - and not multitask - but to focus on what is happening in the moment. Not to dwell in the past or push into the future - just be in the Now.

I'm grateful for the Venus Alchemy work and excited for what more will unfold and to experience others sharing of their experience of the personal Venus phases - it has been rewarding and fun to look at the phases of family and friends too

Response to Sarah Gallant's Post

Rebecca said: Thank you, Sarah. Exploring, deep and direct focus, and creating your own way. So enlightening. I will keep referring back to your post as a guide into the 'secrets of the all knowing seed world' of the underworld/deep space. Just what I have looked at so far in the class material and your mention of the Gene Keys is intriguing. Safe and rich journey to you. I look forward to hearing more.

Sarah Replied: the Gene Keys connection has been a fascinating one to uncover as it relates to the Venus Journey - in the Golden Path (Gene Keys Reference) there are three sequences, one of them is actually called the Venus Sequence and it's related to the opening of the heart - the last step in the Venus Sequence is known as the Core Wound and also the Vocation - it becomes the Vocation as the the first step in the 3rd sequence known as the Pearl.

I appreciate your comments so much and your interest. I'm looking forward to sharing more and also to learning from your sharing and that of others on this journey too 💕💕

Gene Keys, Heterarchy and the Connection to the Libra Meta Goddess Gate or Key #50 connected to Libra/Scorpio

Hierarchy

Is a system where members of an organization or society are ranked according to their relative status or authority.

Heterarchy

Is a system of organization where the elements of the organization are unranked (non-hierarchical) or where they possess the potential to be ranked in a number of different ways.

Authority is distributed.

Heterarchies are networks of elements where each element shares the same “horizontal” position of power and authority, each playing an equal role.

Heterarchy places individual equilibrium before all else. It does this through encouraging a process of individual creative empowerment where each individual is given an extraordinary gift – trust.

Sarah Gallant Questions

I've a question for the on the dates for the Venus Synodic Cycles Comprehensive PDF.

I have a good friend who was born on Feb 18 1962

According to the updated synodic cycles document on January 27 Venus was conjunct the Sun in the Innana Underworld

Then the next 2 entries (where Feb 18 would Fall) say Venus with the Moon - I know my friend does not have Venus with the Moon in her chart - should this read Sun?

Or Am I not understanding what this means?

16-Dec-1961	Aries	Venus 10° From Sun	14 Sagittarius 27
27-Jan-1962	Aries	Venus With Sun	07 Aquarius 00
04-Feb-1962	Aries	Venus with Moon	17 Aquarius 58
06-Mar-1962	Aries	Venus with Moon	25 Pisces 25
09-Mar-1962	Aries	Evening Star Rise	28 Pisces 32
05-Apr-1962	Aries	Venus with Moon	02 Taurus 33

Answer: Venus is with the Moon in the Inanna Underworld On Feb 4, 1962 and March 06, 1962.

Venus is within 10 degrees of the Sun (not visible) starting Dec 16, 1961 until she rises into the evening sky on March 9, 1962. In this cycle there were two invisible Venus Moon conjunctions during the underworld time before Venus rose into the evening sky.

Someone born on Feb 18, 1962 would NOT have Moon with Venus as the Moon moves about 12 to 15 degrees a day. The main thing for this person to know is they were born in the Inanna Underworld.

Many are born in a Moon Venus gate with the Moon not near Venus. This is similar but its not considered a gate.

Also the person born on Feb 18, 1962 has her secondary progressed Venus at 16 25 Taurus - so would this mean that she has progressed into the Evening star phase and currently (and for quite some time) has been in the root chakra gate?

Answer: Yes by progression her Venus has risen into the evening sky and is now at the Root Chakra Gate.

We are planning to have a future class to go deeper into the meaning of progressions.

The main thing to remember is progressions are secondary and may add to our understanding HOWEVER whatever is going on at birth is always PRIMARY.

When progressed Venus reaches 9 Gemini 17 then it progresses through the Sacral Chakra Gate. This is an advanced class question we will cover in a future advanced class not yet created so for those who don't know what this is – don't worry.

How do you determine your Venus Star phase?

I was born 11-18-1947

There are two ways to do that. The easiest way is to use the Special Bonus Document shown below on the Venus Signature class page. Scroll down until you see the green box and click on Venus Synodic Cycles Link. Look for the date before your birthday. Shown below.

An extra Special Bonus Document So You Can Easily Look up any Venus Star Phase, Meta Goddess etc. Updated in 2019

Linda Broome Questions

Second way to determine Venus Star Phase

Linda Broome

Sun is almost 26 Scorpio

Venus is 15 Sagittarius

The Sun will set before Venus.

Venus is 19 degrees away from the Sun In the Evening Sky.

An Evening Star!

Ligin Baker

My Birthday is Feb 4, 1966

Is my Phase of Venus Cycle on New Venus Overtone Birth of New Goddess?

Will you explain this on Q & A for me.
I have a lot to learn in this course.

Thank you, Ligin

Yes the Venus cycle had just begun 3 days before your born on Feb 1, 1966 with the Aquarius Meta Goddess arriving in the Morning Sky meaning Venus was Retrograde – rare part of cycle.

Retrograde Venus is in the Metamorphic Underworld from May 28 to June 09, 2020

This shows Retrograde Venus Jun 1, 2020 In the Metamorphic Underworld

Note the numbers for Venus are in Red showing it is Retrograde.

On a Solar Fire chart Retrograde Venus would have an Rx sign beside it.

Sheridan Semple Questions:

I get my Venus is in Cancer and my MetaGoddess is Virgo. Is there a "Meta" MetaGoddess, meaning is there an overarching Goddess to each 8 year cycle?

In the last Evening Star class, I asked about the MetaGoddess and I think Tami said something about each November-ish a new 8 year cycle starts, so does that make there be an "overtone" to the 8 year cycle as well? Like Libra started the last one and it seems like Scorpio was the MetaGoddess for all the November cycles going back a while.

Answer: This topic will be covered in greater depth in the next Q & A so for now the short answer is (if understanding your question correctly) NO there is not an overarching Meta MetaGoddess every 8 years. There are 5 Meta-Goddess on the world stage every 8 years and then on the 8th year Venus returns close to the same place it was 8 years earlier and that is the Meta Goddess you have at birth.

A new Venus Cycle starts every 19 months with a different Meta-Goddess as Venus rises in a different season. That is why in June 2020 a new cycle begins with the Gemini Meta Goddess. Every eight year Venus rises again in the same season. This has to do with the Venus Pentagon that will be a big feature of the Meta Goddess Q & A.

Venus is with the Sun in the Inanna Underworld

Sheridan Semple Questions and Insight:

I went back through all of the timings of my Venus returns WOW! That was powerful! - and noticed, yes I was born during the Virgo MetaGoddess, but every single of my Venus returns, following that Virgo birth cycle, is in Leo So I'm wondering what that's all about. I'm assuming a variation of that happens for everyone and I'm sure it must mean something! BTW Leo is my Ascendant, so I think that's interesting too!

Answer: This is something you will understand even more clearly when we get to the Meta Goddesses. Many do Experience a shift in their Meta Goddess and many do NOT depending on how long that Meta Goddess has been on the world stage before you were born.

Awareness:

Discovering I'm in the Inanna Underworld phase has summed up my entire life in a way I understand so much more deeply. Pluto is conjunct my Virgo Moon; Chiron square my Cancer Mars, Sun and Venus; Scorpio is on my IC, but somehow discovering my Venus is in the Underworld phase has made this all so much more understandable and even do-able.

Instead of feeling buffeted around by all this Underworld activity, I could finally understand it is my path and I could accept that! I get it! I just need to die and be reborn OVER and OVER and OVER. It has a purpose! It's my Soul's evolutionary path! That I can dig! Whew!

Sheridan Semple Insight:

It's not about living through hellish experiences and hurting so much, wondering what the heck is wrong with me, feeling victimized, it's about evolving and that I'm totally into! What a HUGE relief! So powerful!

I can do the death part now, maybe it doesn't feel great, but I can embrace it because that's my path and the path to the LIGHT!! Thank Goddess for the Light of the Underworld cycle, huh?!?

So, in that "light" I've been going through another round of death and rebirth around my mom, really getting to my core wound - did I mention I'm in my Chiron return right now too 😊 - and I've been finding gratitude (along with lots and lots of grief and anger, something I'm totally feeling so Underworld deeply) for how abusive my mom has been, because she really set me up to learn my Soul's lessons this lifetime.

It's so painfully perfect. As I'm coming to this awareness, learning about my Underworld phase (thanks to you two), I serendipitously talked to my aunt today. She's super religious, and we were talking about my mom, and she said she thinks my mom is possessed by a demon. (My mom has narcissistic personality disorder, and I think that's how my aunt reconciles it in a religious way.)

Sheridan Semple Insight:

Anyway, it triggered what you've been saying about the Daemons in the Evening Star class, and seemed to fit perfectly with what I've been finding appreciation for with my mom and the abuse (for the record, not in a light polarized way, but in a deeply hurt to my core lots of crying, but seeing her contribution to my Soul's intent to evolve way), and I thought, Hey, my mom could be seen as one of my Daemons accompanying me on my journey back up from the Underworld. Right?!?

See what I mean? Literally she's helping my Soul's evolution through being the vehicle to the shadow pain of the Underworld, yet accompanying me back up to the light of the healing. I mean she literally gave birth to me in the Underworld time. How crazy cool is this!?! Deep stuff!

Lots of grief to express still, but wow I'm getting this nice Aquarius type view of it all right now! Another side note, my mom has crazy Virgo everything on her chart, it's my MetaGoddess, and I have Pluto conjunct my Virgo Moon (Uranus too, as well as Jupiter in Virgo conjunct my Ascendant).

Long share, but just had to share! Much thanks to you both! 💕 And, lots of love and appreciation always.

Sheridan Semple

One more question: in the morning star video Tami mentioned timing, particularly around releasing the book you two are writing at the crown chakra of morning star phase because its a good time to birth new things (if I'm remembering correctly). I wondered if you could speak to what are best timings for various things according to the Venus phases, not sure of specific examples to ask but just generally wondered. Thanks again!

Answer (Tami): In depth-research into Venus Cycle Returns and with clients reveals a pattern with the Inanna Underworld as a Conception Point and the Crown Chakra Evening Star Inner Phase as a Birth Point. For example, literal conception, or looking for a home in the Underworld and birth of baby or getting keys to the home at the Crown Chakra Gate. I've had success with clients in Venus Returns viewing the Crown Chakra Gate (or even 8th Chakra) as a target date for them to manifest something in their lives that they can work consciously toward through their Evening Star Journey.

Sheridan Semple Insight:

I did my first reading incorporating my clients Venus star phase 🌟 and it was PROFOUND!!

She was so excited and completely validated her life experience! 🙌 AMAZING!!

Thanks so much for sharing this info!

Interestingly, she's almost exactly 16 years older than me (2 days off) and we have a TON of stuff on our charts that are the same, including the same Underworld phase, but also same Venus sign ♀ (& Sun since we're Underworld gals) and Metagoddess ♀ and obviously go through the same Venus return cycles.

How freaky cool is that?!? 😎

Oh and same Moon ♀!!

My friend called her my astrological doppelgänger! 😂 Super excited for class tomorrow!

I am wondering about progressions is this just another level of overlay to layer in/synthesise/consider?

On a separate note, I'd also be keen to talk to you both directly about how I can do more of this work with others.

Its my understanding that we are able to integrate our own inspired versions of this work into our existing client work / sessions etc but I wondered if you had any plans for people to become Venus Alchemy practitioners of some sort?

If so I would be keen, as I'd like to share this work in a purer way in the UK if possible. I'd love to hear your thought and feelings on this.

Warmest wishes

Nicola

Evening Star, Brow Chakra 6th Gate - Gemini MetaGoddess

First, I have to say how deeply grateful I am for this material. It is an amazing body of work. 100 thank you's.

1. Do you know your Venus Star Phase?

Yes, it is ascent. Ascent is earth, maturity, wisdom, and life as sacred. I experience that deeply at this time of my life, living on the farm that my ancestors lived on, making a lot of mistakes and recovering, attempting to be authentic and honest. I practiced mainstream religion, while always watching the sky. Mainstream religion never fulfilled the hunger I felt and feel. It evolved to a nature, dream, vision, and indigenous based belief practice that feeds my soul. It continues to change.

2. Is it morning, evening or one of the two underworlds? Evening Star 3rd eye - 6th gate/chakra.

3. Do you know what your Venus Star Phase means and how to integrate that with the sign your natal Venus Occupies?

Ascent is awakening to the knowledge that the Queen of Heaven is not only visible in the evening sky, but present within. The human is cooked and purified from the underworld experience and like a shaman's initiation, aware of Great Goddess presence.

Good morning... wow, I thought answering the questions for the Q & A was simple until it got to 'integrate Venus star phase and natal Venus sign.'

Then the big assignment- 'synthesis of understanding around natal Venus, natal Venus phase, and inner star phase ... showing up in your life.' It is like something from the altar got up and danced around the room. Well past time for a deep clean! Ok, back to the questions.

Thank you for sharing this Rebecca as many have just signed up for the class and may be feeling a bit out of the loop. Here are the questions sent in our class emails.

See next slide for the questions etc...

Here are the questions sent in our class emails in case you didn't get a chance to see them.

Do you know your Venus Star Phase?

Is it morning, evening or one of the two underworlds?

Do you feel comfortable locating not only your Venus Star phase but do you know how to do it for others?

Do you have questions about how to integrate your Venus Star Phase with your natal Venus sign?

Do you know Venus returns to your Venus Star Phase even when you are not in a personal Venus Return and that time in the phase may be significant for you to be aware of and work with ceremonially?

It is especially helpful for you to write up a synthesis or understanding around how your natal Venus and natal Venus Star Phase and Inner Star Phase is showing up in your life and send it to us – even now that we the Live Q & A is complete for this year.

The human is asked to know and act upon that for the benefit of not just the individual soul, but for the world/anima mundi.

I think about Isis when she was in disguise and searching for her beloved and broken Osiris. She was not recognized but acted as a servant for a Queen. Isis secretly purified the Queen's infant son nightly in fire to give him the gift of dual nature, both god and human.

Those in ascent have completed a similar purification in the descent and underworld, then long to share the wisdom of that experience. (Isis was interrupted, and the young prince was unable to complete his initiation).

This feels both familiar and alien to me. I have a sense of shame for living a life where that gift seemed to fall on fallow ground. I wonder if the nature of patriarchy, especially in the way the feminine (in the soul of man, in the reality of woman) is oppressed, creates sterile, unforgiving ground.

The process of becoming fully god, goddess, man, and woman is interrupted as the prince's was. So, I kneel to my earth goddess, 12 Capricorn Venus (13th degree of Sabian Symbol- the Fire worshipper) to show me the path from here.

4. Do you feel comfortable locating not only your Venus Star phase and that of others? Yes. I have the information.

The underworld phases and the in-between will take a while, but the identification tools are clear and fascinating.

5. Do you have questions about how to integrate your Venus Star Phase with your natal Venus sign? Oh my gosh, yes! I have already begun to integrate what I have encountered during the descent, underworld and now, the ascent.

The fallow ground of patriarchy calls me to find depth, meaning, and recovery. Part of that search includes Shamanic Astrology and is culminating in Venus Alchemy. Capricorn Venus is dancing around her fire on the earth that she loves and is composed of.

Gemini overtone is alive and explains why I seek and encounter nature spirits, sky beings, and magic every day. Sometimes I recognize it, sometimes I snooze through it. My hope is to always move forward, higher, and become a healed, and healing light being.

My question would be how to utilize the nature of my Venus in an earth sign, with the ascent's (evening star) added earth?

6. Do you know Venus returns to your Venus Star Phase even when you are not in a personal Venus Return and that time in the phase may be significant for you to be aware of and work with ceremonially?

Yes and no. I think I have always looked for Venus and seen her. As a kid I used to crawl out my window at night and get on the roof to watch the sky. Part of that was living near Cape Canaveral during the 60's and experiencing many of the space shots. The other part was just a longing for return to the sky and my star home.

In Tennessee later when I lived with my grandparents, I missed my parents and life together deeply. I would find comfort by watching a bright star in the west that showed up every night. It was like a miracle and a great comfort. I now, having returned to that same location, see that was Venus that I watched and that she continues to comfort me (though she is not visible in this valley yet).

Putting together the phases, gates, signs, overtones is deepening the relationship that we have always had. Thank you! I look forward to exploring what happened when in the timeline of my life.

(I see this is the beginning of the synthesis you asked for. It is a relief to see this material and the challenge now is to listen deeply to what presents, for me, in the sky and land here).

Questions-

Does the personal Venus gate progress and change signs?
How do you figure that? What does that change indicate?

Love we are getting this question again because it indicates its really time to create some follow up classes on the Progressions and other factors.

When the change in overtone occurs, as Scorpio to Libra, can you describe how it affects the person who is born in the previous overtone. I notice in the previous class list there are people with 2 overtones.

This is research we are still feeling into. We have mentioned that it seems the person is then working with both overtones. That is definitely what Cayelin has experience moving from Scorpio to Libra without an ounce of Libra on her chart but really loving to find ways to collaborate and share as long as it is juicy and passionately alive.

How is it different for those born in the previous overtone and those not?

We are still figuring that out. It seems those with only one overtone are very much experiencing that archetypal flavor with their Venus and those with two overtones are experiencing both flavors.

Questions-

Do you see an intention for those with dual overtones?

Yes there is an intention but how attuned a person is or aware of that intention depends on their choices.

Awareness makes a BIG difference when we align with the guidance of our MetaGoddess and allow that energy to guide and inform us.

We recommend you write up a synthesis of understanding around how your natal Venus and natal Venus Star Phase and Inner Star Phase are showing up in your life and send it to us before the live class - especially if you can't join us live but even if you are going to be there.

Simply, I put on the jacket of my Venus in Capricorn. The Gemini overtone or meta-goddess in me attracts and is attracted to nature and sky deities who are as close and personal as brothers and sisters. Through the gates in all the phases I grow and deepen.

Themes, life events, and relationships occur that teach and burn away whatever separates me from the angelic spirit that once was and will always be pure.

It is emotions like fear, anger, mistrust, greed, wounds etc. that distort the clear vision of what is pure.

I wanted to report that I did get myself to the highest hill with an open view of the sky the other night and saw Venus with my Venus buddy. It was beautiful seeing Saturn, the Crescent Moon, Jupiter and Venus all lined up in an arch across the evening sky with the sun setting in the background. We couldn't spot Mercury but knew he was there. It was the highlight of my week.

I'm coming into a very busy time, making new products to sell at a number of local shops and holiday shows. There is a mandatory meeting tonight with one of these shows so unfortunately I'm going to miss tonight's class 😞.

Been feeling torn in so many directions lately and my body hurts. I saw a chiropractor yesterday to help from a bad fall I had on my bicycle on Sun. Oct. 27. It didn't help, he was stretching my neck a lot and this had aggravated an old nerve injury. I wonder what Saturn is trying to tell me? There is so much I want to learn about myself and the choices I have made and will continue to make.

Mercury has a strong presence in my chart, and it's now retrograde in Scorpio. If I were to listen to most astrologers then I just made a bad mistake, I signed a contract to redo my website during a Mercury retrograde. Oh no! However, I am trying to go with my gut more and I feel this was a good decision. I was moving too fast to check in with it before booking that chiropractor apt.

Mercury is all about redo or redoing so imagining signing a contract to redo your website was perfectly timed!

I want so much to know more about Venus. I want look back in my life and see where and when certain important events happened and where and how she was influencing me.

I was 15 when I fractured my neck in a car (I was driving), it wasn't a good time in my life. So when my neck gets re injured like it recently did in 2011, and again now all sorts of things get triggered.

I'm telling you all this because my Gemini Moon requires it in order to process the present. I want to know myself better and to make wiser choices for myself, but it's with tears in my eyes I fear there won't be enough time.

Thank you so much Fay for your vulnerable sharing. We are holding you in the circle as we gathering and trust your healing journey is right on track.

Rebecca Coble I am so happy you saw that amazing line up and with your Venus buddy! And so sorry you hurt yourself during the bike fall, and the chiropractor. You have a lot on your plate. I will miss you tonight. Hang in there and thanks for that amazing Gemini moon. Beauty flows from you like a fountain... there will be time!

Fay Senner Thank you Tami. I am trying to witness what is happening to me as yet another wake up call to help me never forget my body and to become more trusting of my own intuitive knowing about what I need to nourish and care for it. I think I get way ahead of myself at times and take too big of a bit from that 🍎 called life. Knowing this group is here is so important to me right now. ❤️💎

I just joined the Venus Signature Series and have finished the first 2 classes in this series. However, I am also in the Venus Alchemy Inanna Ceremonial class. Here is the synthesis of my understanding regarding my Venus signature thus far, and how I see it playing out in my life.

My birth date is November 20th, 1964. My natal Venus is in Libra, we are currently in the Libra Meta Goddess overtone, and I am a morning star phase Venus at the 4th chakra gate, the heart.

I think what I love most about astrology is how validating it is of one's experience; all of these aspects of Venus resonate deeply with me and are part of my experience.

In terms of my natal chart Libra Venus, I struggle to find the balance between taking care of me, my needs and desires, and nurturing my relationships and fulfilling my householder responsibilities. I have close emotional bonds with our 4 children and 6 grandchildren.

I am also blessed with being married to my 2nd husband, Peter (my BHE, like you Cayelin! LOL!) who I have been with since 1998 and married to for nearly 20 years. Peter is my soul mate and best friend. I knew the moment he called me (a story of divine intervention to be told perhaps at another time), that he was my soul mate and we would spend the rest of our lives together.

Together we created a beautiful family, each of us bringing together 2 children from our previous marriages. After kissing a lot of frogs, I finally found Peter, my prince, with whom I could share a "conscious, co-equal", passionate partnership.

Through my relationship with Peter, I have experienced my greatest healing. I believe I shared this before, but during my Chiron return in 2014, Peter carried me lovingly through my darkest night of the soul. After becoming disabled and unable to work due to my back, Peter pulled out all the stops to get us financially through a period when the disability insurance company cut off my benefits.

I had to hire an attorney and after 8 months and many miracles, I won my case. My father had been abusive and manipulative using money to hurt and try to control me. Consequently, I was fiercely independent (my Morning Star warrior goddess is evident here as well as the air element and masculine qualities of Libra) and did not trust men when it came to money.

Peter lovingly supported me through this entire traumatizing experience, healing this wound; it was the greatest healing of my life.

My relationships are extremely important to me. I do see them as "pathways to God" in that they can bring out the best and the worst in us, but they always present opportunities to heal, grow, and to love more, love ourselves and others.

I believe at the end of our physical lives, the only question that will matter is: How well did I love? As we all know, love is eternal, and the soul is that eternal expression of creative life force, love.

Finding that my Morning Star Venus phase at the 4th gate, the heart chakra, as Venus/Inanna continues her descent into the Underworld, totally validates how willing I am to descend into the Underworld, and let die in me whatever does not serve my mission here as a bringer of light and love and truth sayer.

Consequently, I have gone through several painful transformations along my psychospiritual journey, and know the value of excavating, facing, appreciating, integrating my shadow parts in order to become increasingly whole and holy, to be born into a new improved, more loving version of myself. I am all heart, and I see my relationships and how well I love as the pathway to God, my Higher Self, my inner goddess.

Lorrie Marx-Adams Morning Star, Heart Chakra Gate

As I have shared on FB, this past year I have done a deep dive into both healing myself from an old injurious script received primarily from my mother, that was "I am not good enough," and healing the karmic bond between my mother and I so that I can show up as the loving daughter I want to be.

I call her my Sacred Teacher as her behaviors (she is actively alcoholic) and the way she shows up in our relationship are some of my greatest challenges. I have struggled my whole life to love her while protecting myself, and stay in relationship with her.

On 2 occasions last year my mother engaged in some behaviors that caused me to feel great pain and anger and took months of deep work for me to forgive and move forward with her. I spent January through March committed to loving myself and loving my mother. I engaged in daily meditation, prayer, contemplation, and deep shadow work that has continued in these Venus Alchemy courses.

Through this work, I came to understand that I had been carrying her projections my whole life. It is she who does not feel good enough and projects this onto me through criticism, guilt, and other ego constructs. At the same time, in my deep dive shadow work with her, I have discovered my projections onto her as well.

Lorrie Marx-Adams Morning Star, Heart Chakra Gate

I have been writing about all this in a chapter I call, "My Mother, Myself." My mother has been a life long challenge for me but the deep work I have done over this past year, and during these courses, has allowed me to show up in relationship to her with more compassionate understanding, love, and patience while maintaining necessary healthy boundaries around myself.

I also have done some powerful work around fully loving myself including deep introspection and Louise Hay's mirror and affirmation work. It was here that I recognized that I was carrying my mother's self-hatred, and probably that of her mother, ancestral wounds.

Tami, I loved, loved, loved the exercise you offered around writing a love letter to one's body and reading it aloud while looking in the mirror. I also have incorporated loving all parts of my body both in the morning before rising, and thanking my body before going to sleep. As a soon to be 55 year-old woman watching all the many changes menopause has brought, this is essential to self-love and acceptance of the aging process.

There is so much I could share, I am going to try to hit just a few more powerful highlights. Venus began calling me powerfully through Mary Magdalene about 5 or 6 years ago, so much so that I went on a tour with 5 other women I had never met to southwestern France, the Languedoc region.

Lorrie Marx-Adams Morning Star, Heart Chakra Gate

This is where I found my sister tribe, did ceremony on the land, and became fascinated with sacred geometry. I also had my first astrology reading with a woman who trained through the Shamanic Astrology Mystery School. I was blown away!

It was an affirmation of all that I know to be true about myself, my soul's blueprint. In our closing ceremony to the goddess and Mother Gaia, a heart appeared right on my 3rd eye. This was just one miracle that occurred. I said to everyone, "Well, that makes sense because I am all heart!"

I move through the world in my heart and in my emotions. Last year I returned with my husband on a 3 week tour of France, and we had the most profound experience together when we visited the cave where Mary Magdalene was said to have spent the last 30 years of her life and wrote her gospel.

I came into the world grieving for Mother Earth! And of course, now I have more affirmation: my morning star Venus phase is at the heart chakra! And currently, I am struggling with pain in my heart and anxiety as my personal truth, my passion for Mother Earth, social and economic justice, peace, love, and universal truth is being severely challenged on the world stage by this administration and other leaders.

Lorrie Marx-Adams Morning Star, Heart Chakra Gate

The only way I can assuage my aching heart and anxiety is to believe that we are moving into the Age of Aquarius and all is occurring according to divine order.

But perhaps the most profound and significant take away from the Venus Alchemy courses is that I have finally become clear on why Venus has been calling me and what my sacred work, my dharma, is going forward, something I have been searching for since becoming unable to continue my work as a psychotherapist 8 years ago, the length of a Venus cycle, on August 11th, 2011, just after Venus entered the underworld phase as the Scorpio metagoddess.

Also, I will begin my 56th year, my Venus return, following my birthday on November 20th. In April of this year, I had begun to put together an outline for a workshop on transformational healing using the Inanna story as a framework as my sacred work became more clearly in focus, which is to do soul centric transformational coaching incorporating astrology.

And then as I once again perused the Shamanic Astrology Mystery School website, I came across the Venus Alchemy Ceremonial class! I was blown away! It was both exactly as I had begun to imagine as a workshop but sooo much more!!!!

Lorrie Marx-Adams Morning Star, Heart Chakra Gate

The voluminous material you both have put together is remarkable and transformational! These classes have furthered my own healing while affirming my calling and fueling my passion for astrology and my sacred work. I have literally, as a morning star Venus, been burning up with unexpressed creative fire, and the hot flashes of menopause, lol.

My body's constitution is pitta by nature, consistent with the Morning Star phase, manifesting in chronic inflammation in my back and body, something I, like you Cayelin, have had to address by eliminating many problematic foods through diet. So I really need to channel this fire creatively - exactly what these classes are doing for me.

The material, vision journeys, and ceremonies have helped me to "sacrifice" all that no longer serves me and blocks me from full expression of my creative, divine self, so that I may live each waking moment, to the best of my ability, in gratitude and sacred service.

I feel as though I am embodying your teachings and feel empowered and focused on living in sacred service, making holy all aspects of my life, showing up as the love and light bearer I was born to be. The deep shadow work I have done this past year, especially around my mother, has freed me from the sometimes paralyzing script of not being good enough.

Lorrie Marx-Adams Morning Star, Heart Chakra Gate

As I reflected over the course of my life I could not find any place where I was not good enough. I was able to unwind that karmic cord to my mother, get clear on what was her baggage being projected on me, and what was mine. I have been able to see us both in a new light.

And through the affirmation and mirror work I had been doing and continue to do in the Venus Alchemy course, it has allowed me to fully love myself in a way that had not been possible in the past.

I am now able to own my sacred beauty and my gifts and am ready to move forward in service again!!! I would like to share a quote I came across that aptly describes where I am at today because of this work.

"I found God in myself and I loved her, I loved her fiercely." ~Ntosake Shanghe

Much love, light, and blessings to you both and our sacred community!

Lorrie Marx-Adams

Thank you both so much for all you have created and for providing the sacred space and community to do this deeply transformational work.

Sivianne K Delmars Morning Star
Hi, Beloveds!

I am sitting in a cafe reading about Sekhmet in Jean Shinoda Bolen's Goddesses in Older Women and having a bit of a Piscean Venus meltdown, so I just wanted to share :-).

This Venus Signature course has already been so transformative, thank you both! I thought I was having trouble last night with my 'synthesis' so i just gave up. But it has been cooking for a week now and I was closer than I thought.

I now KNOW (Morning Star Solar Plexus gate know) why Sekhmet sits at the center of my altar, and my heart, always. Before this class, I thought it was 'only' my Aries Moon/Mercury and my Leo Rising that she represented.

And yet, to me, she has always been the great, compassionate, mystical healer Piscean goddess of infinite compassion--in her own inimitable fiery way!!

Silvianne K Delmars Morning Star

I believe she was a great mother queen goddess in times long, long ago...and all that is left are her stories of destructive transformation.

Because someone had to hold the place for that kind of power, and she was courageous enough to take it on!

Rationally, you would think that learning about the importance of this morning star signature to my Pisces Venus would make me feel unbalanced---like, really, that's what I needed was MORE fire in my chart??!!

With heartfelt blessings - Silvianne
