Gemini Insights Fitting in Versus Belonging – When Fitting In is a significant Barrier to Belonging.

True belonging doesn't require you to change who you are - it requires you to be who you are - both vulnerable and brave. ~Brene Brown

- What Interests You? Hang out with people who share your interests.
- What Brings You Joy? Find time to do those things.
- Make a list of things you do to fit in that feel bad, unfulfilling, less than who you really are.
- Who would you look like, sound like, be like if you weren't fitting in?
- What action could you take to let one fitting in habit go or begin to change it somehow over this next month? How would your life be? What would your days look like? Who would you be spending time with?
- Choose to live life defined by YOU and your expectations – not trying to fit into what you imagine others expect of you.
- Be sure to notice the impact of your actions and words. Are they helping you to feel more connected to others?
- Start small and practice belonging to yourself first by being your true self – if you notice you are NOT being true to yourself - commit to changing those habits or ways of being.
- Work your way - step by step - to embracing more of your magnificent self.

Make an Earth Altar and Initiate a Daily Practice of Making Offerings to the Land

- This month choose a place on the land - if you are in an urban area this might be on your back patio for example, or in an off-trail location at a local park.
- Create an Earth Altar - at its simplest this might mean creating a small, beautiful altar with earth-friendly objects including stones, crystals, feathers, bones, seeds, flowers, etc.
- A more complex altar/land offering site might be a medicine wheel aligned to the four directions or small altars built at each of the four directions around your home or property.

Making Your Offering Initiate a regular practice (ideally daily if possible) of tending your altar by making offerings and observing how nature speaks to you at this location.

- Ideally, this is a place where you can see Evening Star Venus and perhaps conduct ceremony at her monthly Moon Gates!

- Offerings might include welcoming the directions, songs, prayers, flowers, cornmeal, rose petals, favorite foods (for example candies, dried fruits, etc.), alcohol, smoke cleanses, charged crystals, painted stones, artwork, and so on as symbolic gifts for the creatures, plants and trees, waters, stones, the sky above and earth spirits.
- It is always good practice honoring and acknowledging all who have lived on this land with special recognition for the earliest indigenous communities.
- In the U.S. you can identify the people originally living on your lands at this link: <https://native-land.ca>
