The Grandmother Goddess – Capricorn Venus Journey

Venus rose in Capricorn beginning the current cycle

Venus spent 9 months as morning star from January 14, 2022 to Sep 13, 2022

Releasing all that was in the way of expressing her WISE authentic self.

She passes through 8 visible Venus Moon conjunctions, representing the 7 chakras of the body and an 8th Chakra (Earth Star Chakra) or a Shamanically inspired Death
by Intent

The Grandmother Goddess In the Underworld

On Sep 14 Venus dove into the Underworld on the other side of the Sun until November 30. Venus travels with the SUN in the Underworld or Cocoon - hidden by the light of the Sun - under going an alchemical transformation into her butterfly self

The Wise Grandmother Goddess Evening Star Journey

December 01, 2022 to August 18, 2023

Venus Spends about 9 months as an evening star reclaiming her authentic Wise Grandmother Goddess Self

During this time there are 8 Venus Moon conjunctions in the Evening Sky representing the Chakras in the body and an 8th Soul Star Chakra, rising up through the Gate of Ascension.

The Underworld

The Underworld is misunderstood, many believe the Dark is bad, Light is good.

Cycle of wholeness, Yin and Yang - constantly turning into the other and back again, creating the One.

If the dark is bad, then is the Yin is bad? This perspective perpetuates the idea the Feminine (Yin) is “bad” and Yang or Masculine is good?

The Underworld is a healing dwelling of restoration and rejuvenation and transformation - being reborn, recreated. It is a place of mending and repairing, release and renewal.

In the Sumerian story, Inanna (Venus) goes into the Underworld to mourn the death of the Great Bull of Heaven and the matrilineal age, during the shift to a new age of patrilineal/patriarchal domination.

It takes courage to go into the Underworld, to consciously choose to face our shadow, where we discover our power and find our inner superhero.

When we again orient ourselves towards the Feminine, the dark, we find wholeness because we stop running from important parts of ourselves, from discomfort.

We find peace in the entirety of our beings and deep Self-Love is born within.

Out of Bounds Venus and Mars are rebel energies, outside the status quo, a wild card factor, creating varying levels of chaos ideally creating a new sense of an evolving order in the world. This is a great time to consider new ways of perceiving reality beyond what may have been previously imagined. Allow your imagination to run wild and imagine any ensuing chaos is creating a new reality this is liberating and fun. Out of Creative Chaos, A NEW Order Follows...

Venus in Her Underworld Phase

Underworld Venus is akin to being in the belly of the Goddess, the Belly of Sekhmet or perhaps the Belly of the Whale as in the story of Jonah and the Whale Sekhmet is a compassionate healer. She has the ability to destroy what no longer serves opening the way to what is growing and evolving.

As Nikki Scully Tells us:

She (Sekhmet) is the container, solid yet flexible, that holds you safe while you are being cooked and your demons digested and transformed into their more productive useful potential...

This is an Alchemical Transformation turning the ordinary (our deeply ingrained, unconscious reflexive responses) into the extraordinary, through the power of consciously enlightened choice!

The power is within us – it is simply a process of letting go of our false sense of self and remembering (or being reborn to) who we truly are!

Capricorn Venus Goddess in the Underworld Questions

- What would it take for me to trust the darkness, the stillness, the Goddess of the void?
- What would it take for me to accept and lean into whatever the Underworld brings forth for me?
- What would it take for me to completely feel into my shadow and liberate myself?
- What would it take for me to know inside I am moving into greater empowerment and expression with every step I take?

Underworld Morning Practice

Keep It Simple

Feel YOUR Feelings as you wake up.

Are you Anxious, Panicked, Scared, Mad, Hurt, Depressed, Angry, Overwhelmed, Weary, Drained, Exhausted?

If you are feeling happy, content, joyful go with that.

Is someone or something irritating you?
(i.e. politics, work, family)

If you are not sure what feelings to be with - ask your body what is ready to be felt or is ready to arise from deep within?

Perhaps you notice a recent painful incident or one from long ago that you are still grieving or seething over?

Find a way to feel what you feel. Journal, Dance, Move, Lie Still, Tone, Scream, Cry, Howl, Keen,
Beat a Pillow...Shake your body (see next slide for shaking practice)

Underworld Morning Feeling Practice

If you have time rock or shake your body while still in bed, moan, cry, scream, sigh with intent to feel what you feel for as long as needed or as long as you have time to feel it...

Once you notice the feeling has lessened or vanished altogether - send love and light to the person or situation and include yourself.

There are many layers to grief and pain so revisit or check in each morning allowing whatever feelings are there to emerge with the intent to feel them and let them go.

When the Feelings have eased, ask the part of you that Knows (via meditation or journaling or self-reflection) what are the best activities and actions to take care of yourself for now.

Remember what your body wants may change from day to day.
