5th Moon Cycle Clan Mother

Echoes of the Ancestors
Ride the Winds of Change,
Voices of the Creatures
Calling out my Name.

Singing spirits on the breeze,
The crashing of waves to shore,
The pounding of the Earth's heart
Teach me what to listen for.

In stillness, before dusk and dawn,
Hidden messages are set free.

My ears can hear this music,
And my heart can understand.

Clan Mother Tiyoueh,
I am yours to command.

I listen for your whispers
On a course you will chart,
Searching for the still voice
that lives within my heart.

Sedna's egg-shaped orbit takes about 11,500 years to return to Perihelion
 Next Perihelion is 2076
 Last Perihelion was around 9400 BC

Discovered in 2003 Sedna is a dwarf planet in the outermost reaches of our Solar System. It is comprised of water, methane and nitrogen ices similar to trans-Neptunian objects and is similar to Ceres both being the largest planetoids known to NOT have a Moon.

Sedna has a diameter of approximately 1,000 km or 621 miles (thought to be between the sizes of the asteroid Ceres and Saturn's moon Tethys).

Currently Sedna is about 3 times further from the Sun than Neptune. Due to its elliptical orbit there are times when Sedna is 31 times further from the Sun than Neptune.

Astronomer Michael E Brown, co-discoverer of Sedna, believes that understanding Sedna's unusual orbit could yield information about the origin and early evolution of the Solar System.

It might have been perturbed into its orbit by one or more stars within the Sun's birth cluster, or possibly it was captured from the planetary system of another star. The clustering of the orbits of Sedna and similar objects is speculated to be evidence for a planet beyond the orbit of Neptune.

Sedna is an Inuit Crone Goddess of the deepest coldest parts of the Arctic Ocean. She felt the deepest emotions of betrayal, anger, resentment and rage brought on by treachery.

Synchronistically the Dwarf Planet travels the deepest coldest parts of space.

Sedna comes closest to Earth and the Sun in less than 50 years

She is helping earthlings feel and deal with all our frozen emotions that comes from the depths of who we are. The opportunity is to feel what we feel, forgive, heal and transform into a more lovingly abundant, fun life.

Sedna entered Taurus in 1965 having spent the previous 100 or so years in Aries.

Sedna enters Gemini June 15/16.

Then retrogrades back into Taurus in November.

Sedna re-enters Gemini in April 2024 traveling through this sign until 2068.

THE 13 ORIGINAL CLAN MOTHERS

The Clan Mother of Tiyoweh a.k.a. the Stillness.

Her cycle is truth. Hearing the truth.

Entering the silence and listening to the messages of nature, our hearts, the Spirit World, the viewpoints of other humans, the creature-teachers and Great Mystery.

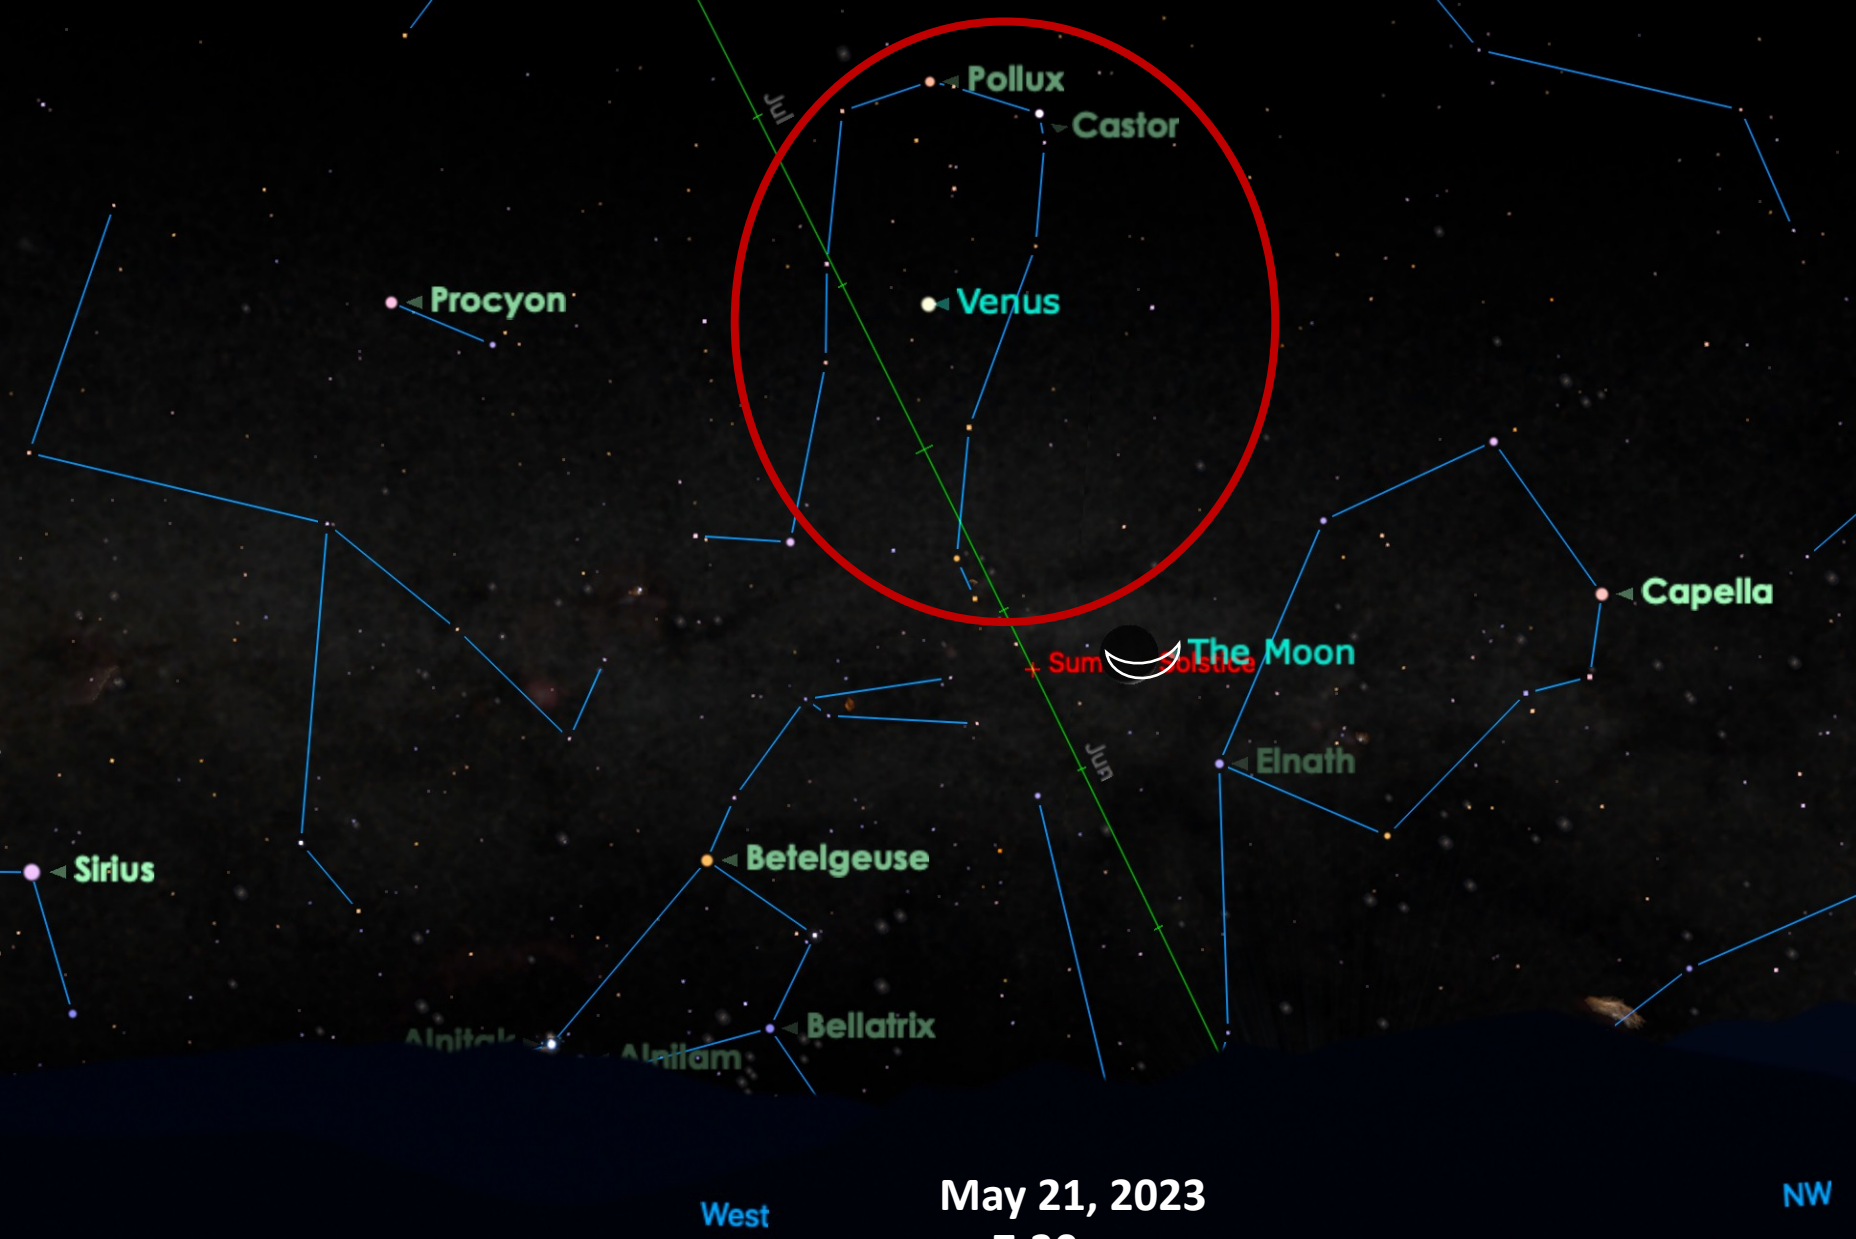

She teaches us to listen to our inner voice accessing our Inner Truth where personal wholeness is realized.

She teaches us how to allow each life form
its sacred point of view.

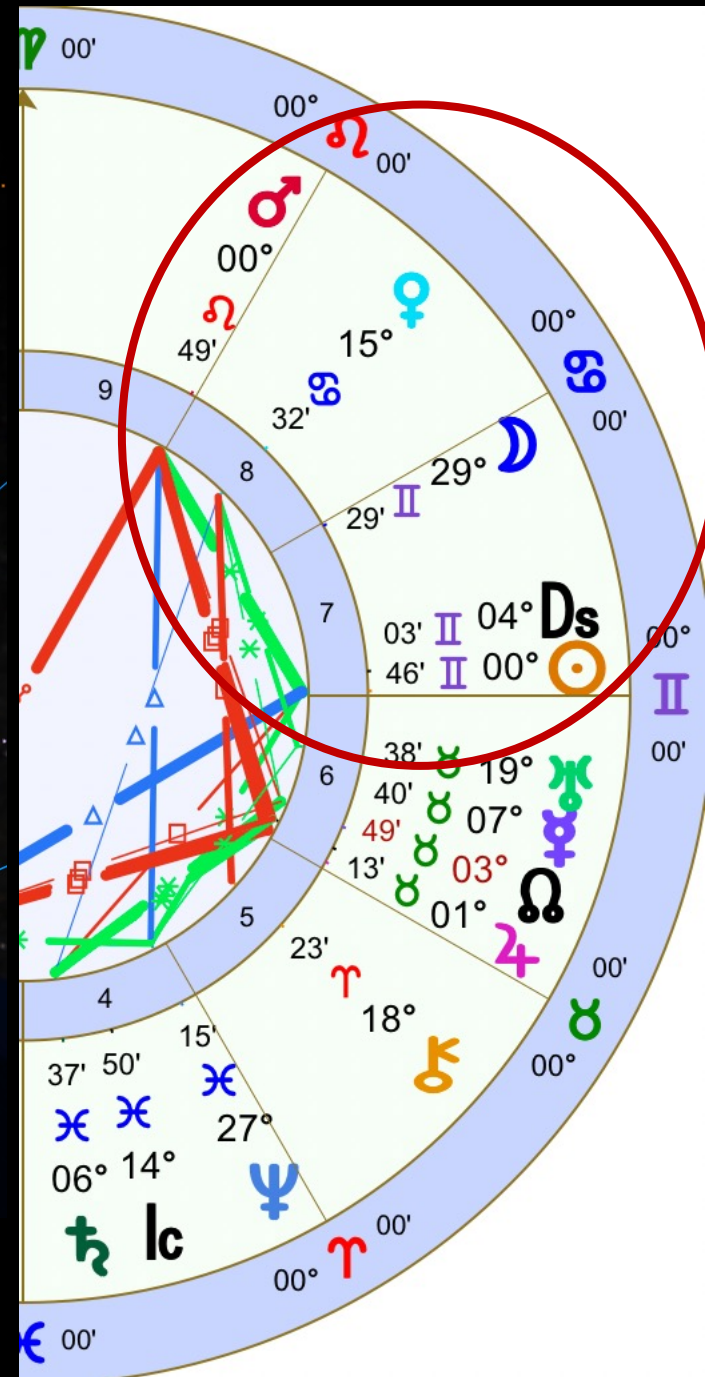

She teaches us to extend compassion to those who lie as a survival tactic because the truth within the light of Eternal Love is not accessible.

Reclaiming the Third Eye Chakra Capricorn Meta-Goddess with Venus in Cancer

thru June 5

The ancient wisdom of the Capricorn Grandmother now teaches us how to see, envision, and trust our intuition. She models empowerment through our inner wisdom, nurturing each of us into more wholeness. She offers the nourishment that provides security and stability, sharing the perceptions only the Grandmother can teach to the Mother. She generously guides us into the profound vibration of unconditional Love. Her Love allows us to foster our visions and intuition.

Grandmother Crone nurturing us within Cancer, guide us into seeing clearly so that we can nourish our clans with deeper Love. Please help us to know the power of our intuition to foster and grow life around and within us.

- ❖ How does it feel now that I allow my psychic perceptions to flow freely?
- ❖ How am I sharing my perceived wisdom with my people?
- ❖ How do I feel now that I trust my intuition and allow it to nourish me?
- ❖ What is my daily experience now that I am confident to trust my visions?

She overflows with so much love that she invites us to love ourselves as deeply. Her divinity inspires our connection to spirit. Her fire opens our third eye chakras to see everything and commune with our intuition.

Mighty Capricorn Goddess leading us to our Divine Selves with radiant Love, please help us to see ourselves as we truly are, divine beings of Light and Love. Help us to embrace empowerment through trusting our sight. Let us see and be one with the Goddess.

Honoring the (becoming) Crones– Rosalie Fish

Activist and Runner – bringing awareness to MMI
Murdered Missing Indigenous Women

Fish is a member of the Cowlitz Tribe, who grew up on the Muckleshoot Reservation. In 2019, she ran in the Washington state high school track meet with a red handprint painted on her face, symbolizing the many Indigenous women who were silenced by violence.

- ❖ The handprint was to honor and bring attention to the missing and murdered Indigenous women crisis.
- ❖ She continues to run with the red handprint on her mouth and speaks out about issues facing Indigenous women.
- ❖ According to the Urban Indian Health Institute, Indigenous women, girls and two-spirit people living on reservations are murdered at a rate 10 times the national average; murder is their third-leading cause of death, the majority committed by non-Native offenders on Native-owned land.

Honoring the Crones – Wilma Mankiller

1945-2010

Scorpio Venus, Aries Meta-Goddess, Morning Star, Root Chakra

After years of activism for Indigenous rights in the U.S. throughout her teens and adult years, including the reclamation of Alcatraz island, she was appointed as Cherokee Nation's deputy principal chief in 1983. Two years later she became the first female principal chief for Cherokee Nation.

- ❖ Notably, she governed the United States' second-largest Indigenous nation for ten years.
- ❖ Remarkably, she got the award for Presidential Medal of Freedom in 1998.
- ❖ In 2022, Mankiller received her own U.S. quarter, becoming one of just two Native women—alongside Sacajawea—to have her face printed on American currency.
