Venus in Alchemical Astrology

VENUS Represents an Exploration of the DIVINE FEMININE through many different signs and phases of the Venus Cycle.

From the Alchemical Astrology perspective Venus is NOT limited to concepts like romance, relationships, personal aesthetics, or values around money and material possessions.

Rather

For all of us — She is our emerging Sacred Feminine expression

What sign is your Venus in?

Venus Cycle Guided by the Ancient Story of the Goddess Inanna

This “myth” is a cosmological explanation of how the Venus Cycle works.

The story of Inanna (humanity’s first written story) is a literal description of how Venus moves through the sky every 19 months.

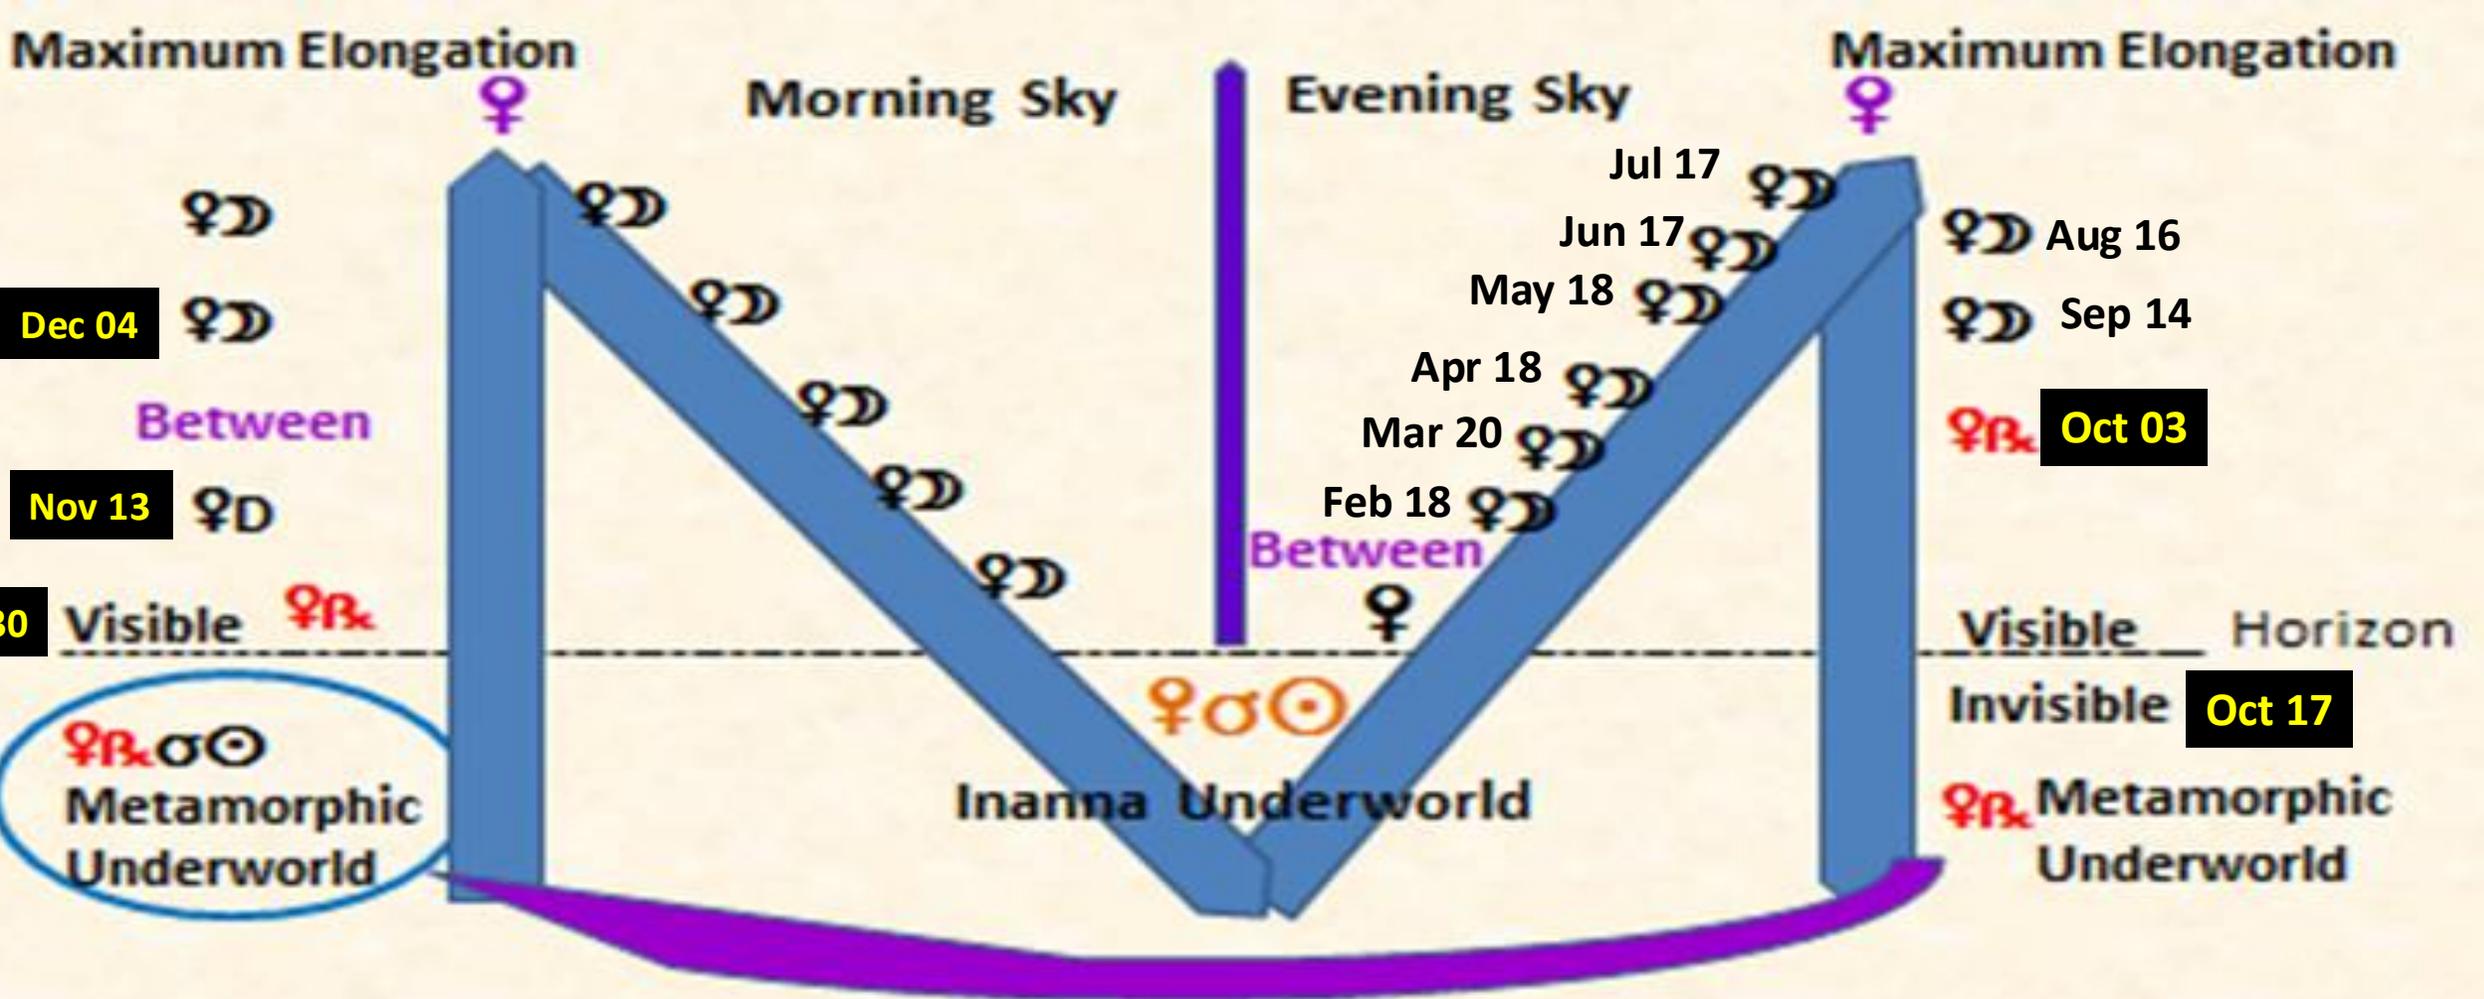

The Goddess descends down to the Underworld, then ascends out of the Underworld — through 7 Gates

It is a myth with massive implications for our current time.

Describes the collective descent into and renewal out of patriarchal culture.

It inspires our personal initiatory death and rebirth processes as orchestrated by the Divine Feminine.

Venus and Mars currently have three repeating patterns.

One pattern of the Venus Mars union is similar to the story of Dumuzi and Inanna.

When Inanna sends Dumuzi to take her place in the Underworld.

This occurs when Venus and Mars have a short connection in the evening sky visible in the West and a long morning connection visible in the East.

Mars always disappears into the underworld soon after the evening union, while Venus remains in the evening sky for a few weeks.

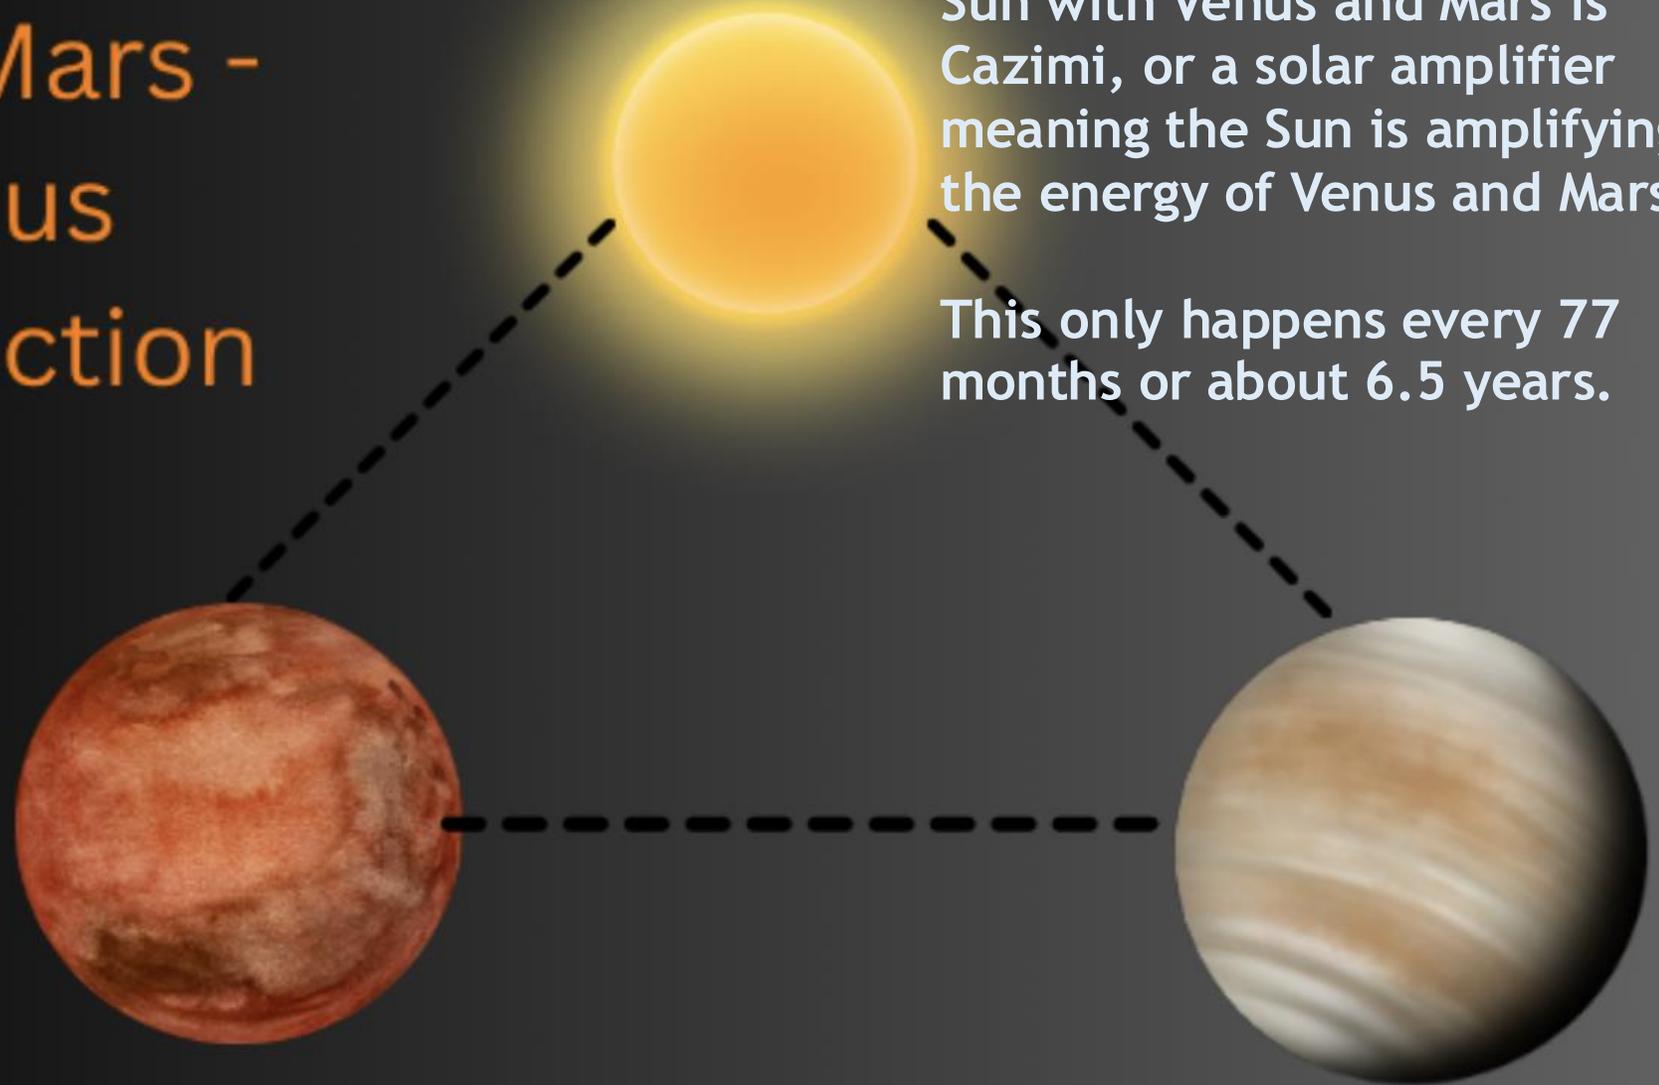

A Morning Sky meeting of Venus and Mars

SE

A Venus Mars union is defined as being within 10 degrees.

Sun - Mars - Venus Conjunction

Sun with Venus and Mars is Cazimi, or a solar amplifier meaning the Sun is amplifying the energy of Venus and Mars.

This only happens every 77 months or about 6.5 years.

Another pattern of the Venus and Mars union is happening January 6/7/8, 2026 where Venus and Mars meet with the Sun, the source of light and life for our planet, sourcing a new way to engage in Sacred Union.

Mars is shifting from evening sky to morning sky and Venus is shifting from morning sky to evening sky. Both are on the far side of the Sun as they emerge from their underworld initiations.

It has been 32 years since we have had Venus and Mars together with the Sun in Capricorn and it will be 32 years more before it happens again.

The third pattern for Venus and Mars joining together features a long evening union with Venus Rx entering the underworld first, followed by Mars. Making at least 2 conjuncts as Venus goes through her Rx. Next is when Venus Rx conjuncts Mars at  $04^{\circ}$  Gemini  $39'$  on June 13/14, 2028

Then they rejoin together for a short morning union  $2^{\circ}$  Leo  $02'$  on Sep 07, 2028.

Any one of these three unions occurs every 77 months or just about every 6.4 years.

Then every 32 years the pattern repeats itself where Venus and Mars meet in the same part of the sky in the same union pattern.

Evening Sky Union

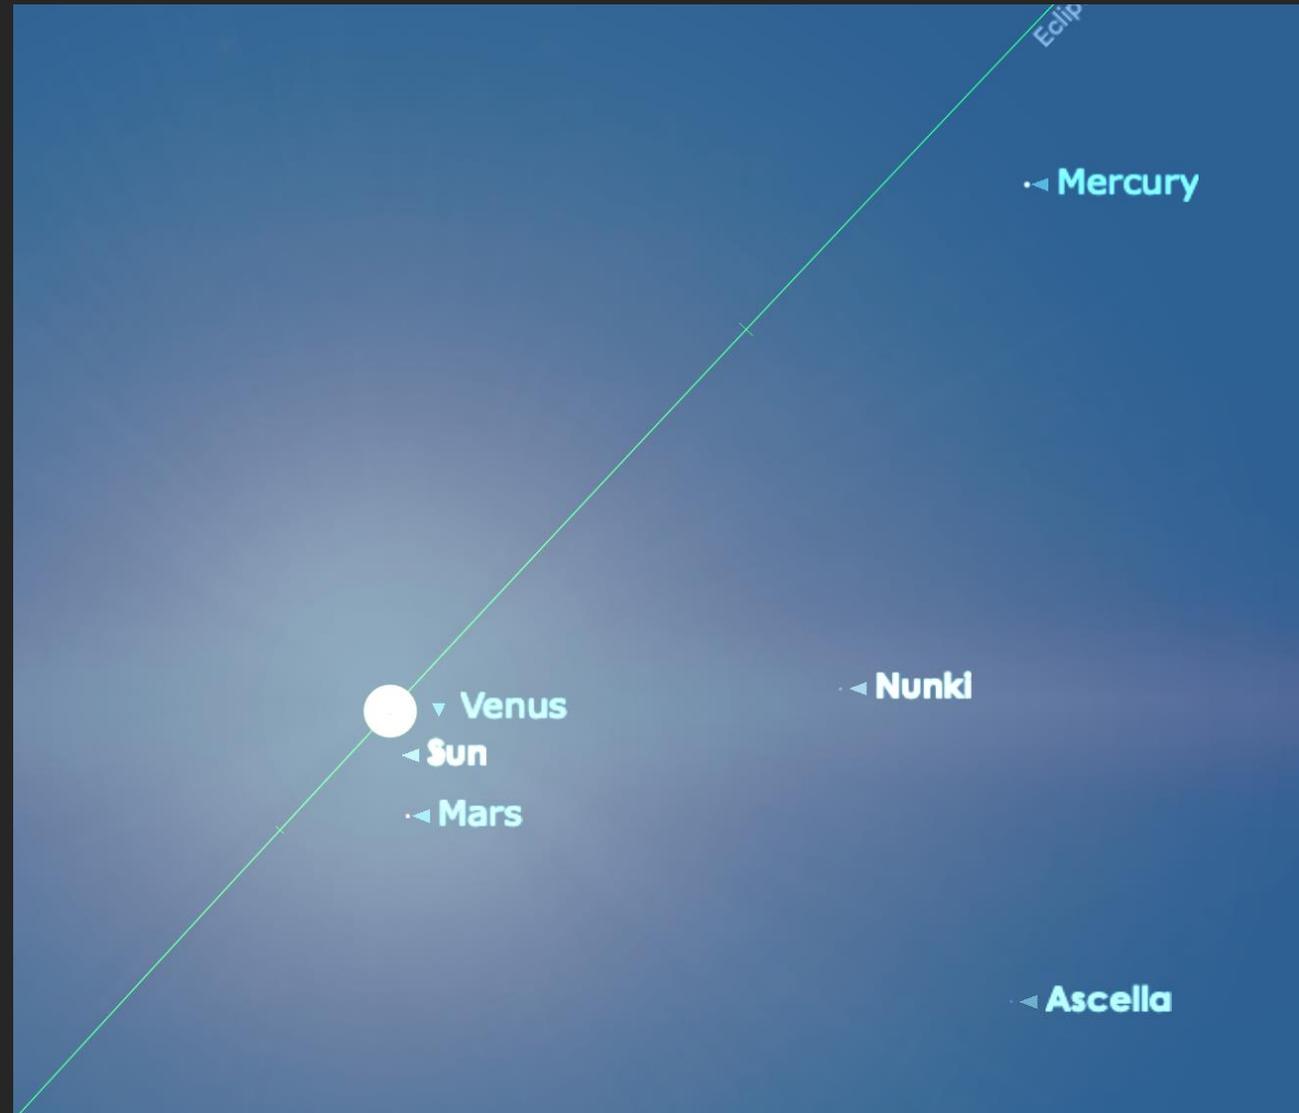

The Underworld union is unique as Venus and Mars meet with the Sun sourcing a new way of engaging in sacred union between.

Mars technically enters the underworld when  $15^\circ$  from the Sun. This occurred on Nov 12, 2025.

Mars remains invisible due to close proximity to the Sun until March 16, 2026 when Mars moves  $15^\circ$  away from the Sun - about 123 days.

Venus reached  $10^\circ$  from the Sun on November 25 and rises into the evening sky  $10^\circ$  from the Sun on Feb 17 or about 83 days in the underworld.

Venus and Mars meet with the Sun on January 6/7, 2026. The last time this happened in the same area of the sky was 32 years ago.

Co-creative and Collaborative Relationships

When Venus and Mars join with the Sun in Capricorn, they are sourcing new wise ways of engaging in sustainable relationships, that serve the future generations.

This is about restructuring the relationship between the masculine and feminine that gets the best, most sustainable results for the least amount of effort.

Venus (Inanna) in the underworld must surrender and die to who she thought she was so she can be reborn to who she really is.

In the process of letting go, she is learning (remembering) how to grieve all that she has lost personally and all the losses happening on a collective level.

In the Inanna story this is related to the death of an age, preparing for a new time. Death and Rebirth.

Mars in the underworld, is dying to old ways of masculinity that are no longer sustainable, including power, control, domination, and success at the expense of those who are seen as lesser, unimportant, expendable etc.

Now is the time for the sacred masculine to feel all the feelings he has previously been unwilling to feel.

This can include grief, vulnerability and empathy that had to be suppressed to be what the culture said was the way a man should be.

This is opening the way for the sacred masculine to be a genuine hero, a genuine protector of family, home, and our beloved Earth.

When both Venus and Mars are in the underworld together there is a wondrous opportunity to co-create sacred union that expresses as wholeness.

The wholeness of both coming together to create an even greater wholeness.

Aries Pisces Meta Goddess Evening Star

Feb 17 Venus Appears in the Evening sky visible around 5:55 pm depending on your horizon line. Venus is now 10° from Sun.

This begins her journey to reclaim her authentic self having died to who she thought she was.

Note: Mercury is near Venus as described in the Inanna story when she rises from underworld and is greeted by Ninshubar.

This Venus cycle having begun near the March Equinox most closely matches the Inanna story as Mercury is Ninshubar as it was in Feb 18, 2018 & Feb 21, 2010

*Venus in the Underworld —
Shadow Work for our Wholeness*

The Underworld

The Underworld is misunderstood, many believe the Dark is bad, Light is good.

This is a cycle of wholeness, Chinese Yin and Yang - constantly turning into the other and back again, creating the One.

If the dark is bad, then is Yin bad? This perspective perpetuates the idea the Feminine (Yin) is “bad” and Yang or Masculine is good?

The Underworld is a dwelling of healing - restoration and rejuvenation and transformation - being reborn, recreated. It is a place of mending and repairing, release and renewal.

It takes courage to go into the Underworld, to consciously choose to face our shadow, where we can uncover our greatest power and find our true inner light.

When we orient ourselves towards the Feminine, the dark, we find wholeness because we stop running from vital parts of ourselves, from discomfort.

We find peace in the entirety of our beings, our wholeness, and deep Self-Love is born within.

Shadow work begins with integrating the two fundamental forces present in the universe —
contraction and expansion

Dark and Light

A conscious willingness to integrate these two forces
within ourselves —

Reclaiming what we've buried into our shadow

— in shame —

for safety, acceptance,
belonging, and love

Shadow Work with Venus & Mars in the Underworld

With Venus and Mars both in the Underworld together, it's a sacred time to courageously turn inward and feel what's been hidden.

Shadow work isn't about fixing yourself — it's about remembering your wholeness. The shadow holds the parts of you you've exiled: your power, anger, desire, grief, and truth. By facing what you've avoided, you reclaim the energy trapped in shame, fear, and self-judgment.

Shadow work is the path to create true inner peace — it's the way out of disconnection, alienation, and isolation. It's how you return to yourself, softened, strong, and whole once again.

While Venus & Mars journey through the Underworld, we are invited to:

- ✦ Bring light to what's been hidden.
- ✦ Release the fear that keeps us small.
- ✦ Reclaim the power, creativity, and love that has always been ours.

This is your call to make the unconscious conscious, as Jung taught — to see yourself authentically in the mirror of your shadow and find it to be an ally.

✦ You begin by simply allowing yourself to feel, in snippets, moments, minutes of time.

Aries-Pisces Meta-Goddess in the Underworld Questions

- What would it take for me to trust the darkness, the stillness, the Goddess of the void?
- What would it take for me to accept and lean into whatever the Underworld brings forth for me, even if I feel uncomfortable at times?
- What would it take for me to completely feel and embrace my shadow, thereby liberating myself?
- What would it take for me to feel and know I am moving into greater empowerment and authentic expression with every step I take?

Underworld Morning Practice

Keep It Simple

©Venus Alchemy

Feel YOUR Feelings as you wake up.

Are you Anxious, Panicked, Scared, Mad, Hurt, Depressed, Angry, Overwhelmed, Weary, Drained, Exhausted?

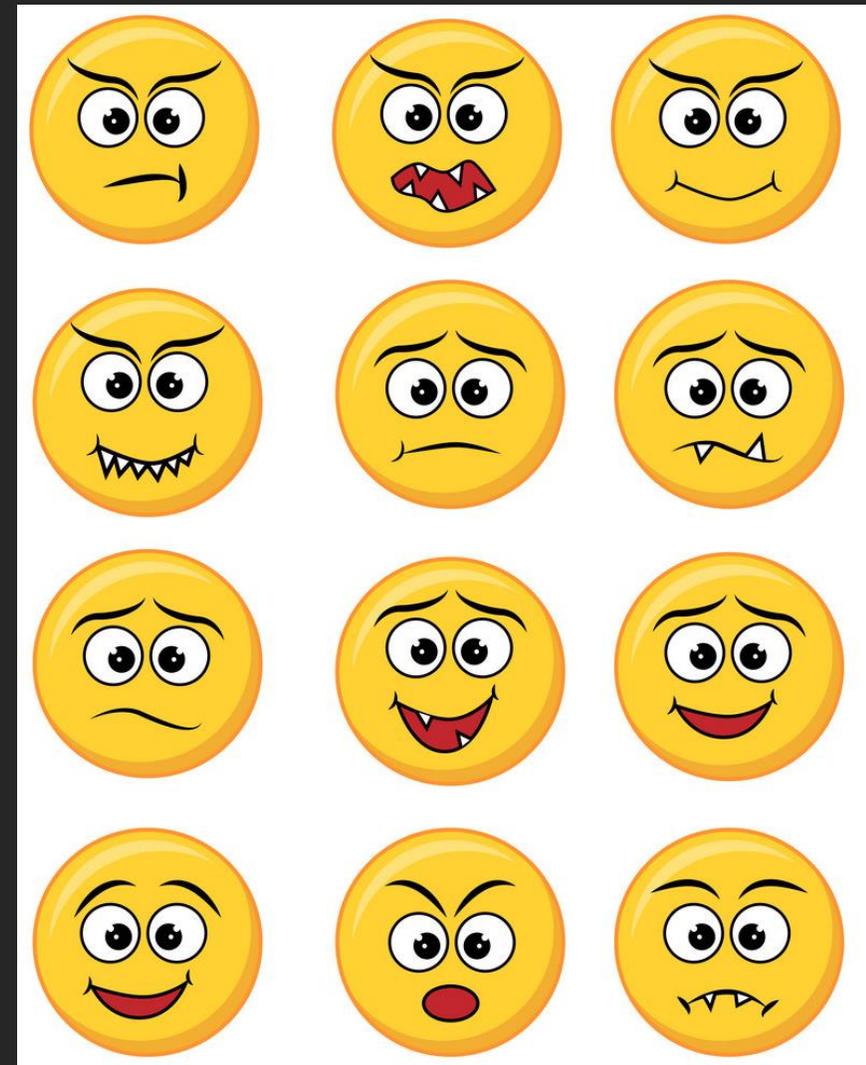

If you are feeling happy, content, joyful go with that.

Is someone or something irritating you?
(i.e. politics, work, family)

If you are not sure what feelings to be with - ask your body what is ready to be felt or is ready to arise from deep within?

Perhaps you notice a recent painful incident or one from long ago that you are still grieving or seething over?

Find a way to feel what you feel. Journal, Dance, Move, Lie Still, Tone, Scream, Cry, Howl, Keen,
Beat a Pillow...Shake your body (see next slide for shaking practice)

Underworld Shaking Practice

If you have time rock or shake your body while lying in bed (morning, mid-day, night whatever works for you). Allow yourself to feel through moaning, crying, screaming, sighing with intent to feel what you feel for as long as needed or as long as you have time to feel it...

Once you notice the feeling has lessened or vanished altogether - send love and light to the person or situation including yourself.

There are many layers to grief and pain so revisit or check in each morning allowing whatever feelings are there to emerge with the intent to feel them and let them go.

When the Feelings have eased, ask the part of you that Knows (via meditation or journaling or self-reflection) what are the best activities and actions to take care of yourself for now. ©Venus Alchemy

Remember what your body wants may change from day to day.

Article on the Healing Power of Shaking

For 1 or 2 minutes a day

Another option is Dance and Move your Body to release stuck emotions.
